A well-known barrister gives the following as the rights on the public highways in towns and cities: The streets belong to teams and vehicles and pedestrians have no more business upon them than teams would have upon the sidewalk. The crossings at the street corners belong to pedestrians, who have right of way there by law and against teams. Many drivers ignore the law and dash over the crossings, endangering the lives of the pedestrians, without thinking they are violating the law. No vehicle or horse can, within the law, be driven rapidly over the crossing, nor can the driver obstruct the crossing.

ELECTORS--ATTENTION!
City Election on 20th November.

Personal Registration--The Duty of Every One.

In each ward a place for registration will be provided where each manhood franchise voter and new-comer must personally attend on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday of next week (Oct.
31st and 1st, 2nd and 3rd November) to have his name placed on the NEW VOTERS' LIST.

Don't let any one suppose that because his name was on the list at the last Provincial election that his name will be on the new list, unless he attends to have his name registered on one of the above days.
Owners and tenants who were on the last Provincial list are supposed to be placed on the new list without personal attendance, BUT DON'T TAKE THIS FOR GRANTED. SEE FOR YOURSELF THAT YOUR NAME IS ON THE LIST, OR YOU MAY ON ELECTION DAY FIND YOU HAVE NO VOICE.

The Conservative rooms in the Cote block, corner of Dundas street and Market Lane, will be open day and night, where any elector can easily find out if his name will be on the list without attending personally to register.

The only qualification necessary is residence in the Province for one year before 31st October, 1894, and three months' residence in the city before the 31st October, 1894, and residence in the city on that day.

The hours of registration on above days will be from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m., and from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Workingmen are supposed to have preference between 7 and 8 p. m.
Electors, don't fail to have your names put on AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE.

Manhood suffrage votes and new-comers' names will NOT be on the list unless personally registered.

CITY NEWS.

Mr. C. A. Wismer and wife, of this city, formerly of Berlin, are visiting friends there.

Mr. Walter Shanly, C. E., of Montreal, is in the city on a visit to his brother, Col.
Shanly.

Mrs. A. Emerson, of Bothwell, is here, and will spend a few days visiting relations and friends.

Mrs. Barclay, of London, and Miss Gentles, of Glasgow, Scotland, are the guests of Mrs. W. G. McKay, Woodstock.

The residence of Mr. H. E. Nelles, corner of Oxford street and Thornton avenue, was offered for sale by Auctioneer Jones yesterday, but was withdrawn at $4,456.

The farm stock of William Richardson, 4th concession of Biddulph, was sold by Auctioneer J. W. Jones yesterday at 40 cents on the dollar to William Henders, of Hamilton.

The rain prevented a quorum materializing at the meeting of No. 3 Committee called for last evening, only Ald. Scarrow (acting-chairman), Notkins and Wm. Hea-man showing up.

The members of Court Forest Queen, No. 6563, A. O. F., intend holding a social gathering among themselves (and invited guests) this [Wednesday] evening in Forsters' Hall, Dundas and Clarence streets.

Many Londoners will be interested in hearing that $10,000 of the $15,000 debt upon Knox Church, Ottawa [Rev. James Ballantyne, pastor], was subscribed at a recent meeting of that congregation. The public meeting will be held on November 11th.

"The Lost Paradise," which the William Morris Co. will produce at the Grand Opera House on next Saturday evening, is a powerful play and one suitable for all classes of people. The great strike scene in the second act is one of the most exciting scenes ever produced on the stage.

Mrs. Harvie, of Toronto, who is so well-known as a philanthropic worker and gifted speaker, is called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Creighton, of Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Harvie while in London will address a mass meeting in St.
James' Presbyterian Church on Thursday night.

Mr. Walter Smith, while out shooting recently, took a novel way to bag his game.
Coming up behind Burns Bros.' dog Lonoake, who had a quail under his mesmeric point, he reached forth and grabbed a live quail. With its wings clipped he now uses the bird to train some young dogs.

The sudden death of Mrs. Joseph Cobbledick, of Exeter, which took place at the City Hospital here the other day, where she went to undergo an operation, is greatly felt by the community at large.
The funeral was one of the largest ever seen in that town. Over 150 rigs accompanied the body to the cemetery.

WHERE TO REGISTER.

The registration booths, required under the new Provincial Franchise Act for the forthcoming by-election, were named at a special meeting of the City Council on Saturday evening. Six booths were chosen, and include one for each ward, as follows:—

- No. 1 Ward—Ante-room of the Council Chamber, City Hall.
- No. 2 Ward—Miss E. Mercer's house, 619 Richmond street.
- No. 3 Ward—Thomas Atkins' house, corner of Simcoe and Burwell streets.
- No. 4 Ward—Labor Hall, Dufferin avenue.
- No. 5 Ward—Room in East End Hall, Dundas street.
- No. 6 Ward—W. R. Brown's house, 142 Wortley Road.

On Monday evening the Colborne St.
Epworth League opened the season with a rousing concert held in the church, which was filled to the doors. The following excellent programme was presented:— Chairman's address, Mr. Joseph Nicholson; violin solo, Mr. James Creswell, which was rendered with such a master hand and was applauded to the echo, to which he responded with "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and variations; readings by Miss Orey, which were well received; solos from Miss Fortner, Miss Vincent, Miss Coughtree and Mrs. Rogers, all of which were well rendered; instrumentals from Miss Rison and Mrs. Jacques, Messrs.
Knob Bros. and Miss Smith; a chorus by the Pearl Gatherers was also well received, but the case and grace with which the younger ladies of Wellington St. Church performed their part called forth the unanimous praise of the whole audience.
Much praise is given to the officers of the League for the success of the evening, and all wish them success in the evening to be spent in the same way a few weeks hence.

The many friends of Mrs. Hammond, Delaware, will regret to hear of her death, which occurred yesterday evening, after a prolonged illness. She was the widow of the late Randall C. Hammond, one of the earliest settlers in Delaware, but has been a widow for many years, and leaves behind a family of four sons and four daughters to mourn her loss. The deceased was a very estimable lady, well known for her generous hospitality, and her beautiful home, "Forest Hill," has been the scene of many happy gatherings. Mrs. Hammond was a member of the Church of England, and a sister of Mrs. Weld, of Ridout street, and a sister of Mrs. B. E. Noble, Dr. Teesdale and Mr. C. Walker.

The London Presbytery held a special meeting at English Settlement Church, Vancouver, the other day, for the ordination and induction of the Rev. Samuel Lawrence, late of Knox College, Toronto.
Rev. Alex. Miller, of Mosa, moderator of Presbytery, presided; Rev. Mr. Brown, of Tempo, preached; Rev. James Little addressed the minister, and Rev. Norman Lindsay the people.

A burglary was committed in this city one night last week, and the thieves carried off a quantity of jewellery and several revolvers. The Chief of Police and detectives failed to give the information to the Press, but they have it.

Dr. Weld leaves to-morrow on a trip to British Columbia for a few weeks.

THE HORSE HAD NO DINNER, And it Fell Down Before Reaching Home—Rag Peddler McArthur Gets Loaded and Forgets to Feed His Horse.

Last week a local rag peddler named McArthur, who lives with his mother on Adelaide street, bought a horse from a Brantford man, and now he wishes he hadn't.

According to the story he told Sergt-Major Adams at police headquarters last night he started early yesterday morning on a trip through London township exchanging tinware for the farmers' old rags.

He drove out to Lobo village and arrived at Reeves' hotel, two miles from this city, on his return trip at 11 o'clock. He put up there for dinner, and apparently got a little more than he could conveniently carry, but it was quite evident that the poor horse had not. At three o'clock McArthur started for home, and was a little more than six hours coming as far as the corner of Wellington and Piccadilly streets. The horse became thoroughly fatigued out here and fell down in the ditch, and the driver made an effort or two to raise him without getting down from his seat, and then made up his mind if the brute wanted to spend the night there he had no objections, and was soon sound asleep.

It was in this condition that Messrs.
Albert Taylor and John Thompson found him, but a vicious dog belonging to the rag peddler prevented them from attempting to raise the horse. Policemen Wool-way and Hobbins were summoned, and McArthur was arrested and taken to the Police Station by P. C. Woolway. P. C.
Hobbins brought the horse down after a good deal of difficulty, and he at least is prepared to believe that it cannot travel as fast as Mand S. It took nearly an hour and a-half to bring it to Carling street.

McArthur, his horse and wagon and faithful dog spent the night at the Police Station, and the former will come before the Police Magistrate this morning.

Our large show window is dressed up. It always is. But just now it is dressed up elegantly with an elegant lot of Fall Dress Materials, some that we want to soon see made up into dresses and being used.
The window looks charming; so will the person who makes up her mind to purchase. Everything in that window is worth $4, but they are being sold for $3. Ten times more beautiful are they when made up than in the piece. We have genuine novelties in Dress Goods. You can't tell how good they are by the price, which has in every instance been placed as low as possible.
