The cheeriness of the morning was succeed-ed by apprehension, and a dreary rain, which began to fall, added to the gloomy reeing which prevailed. The bulletin was personally delivered to the physicians announced the President's condition was not so good disquieting as it was, was a relief. It was explained to the Associated Press that the trouble which existed was due to the fact that the food taken this morning had not agreed with the Presi-dent. It had not been disposed of, and the rise in the pulse was attributed to that fact. It was stated quite positively that the consulting physicians did not believe that the failure to digest the food was due to the Condition of the which were believed to be practically heated, and so pronounced by Dr. Me Burney and his associates. The fact that the food would not agree with the patient could not have been anticipated, so it was stated, but as soon as it was found that it had not, the administration of food by the mouth was discontinued the problem which now confronts the physicians is to dispose of this undi-gested food in the stomach. Dr. Mann, who is considered the chief surgeon in absence of Dr. McBurney, is condident that the undigested food will pass away curing the night.
