since the opening of the "home" in 1869 is 1526. The number of boys admitted last year was somewhat below the average owing to the mildness of last winter. Night school is held four times a week. There were fifty depositors among the boys list year, one boy alone saving $35. They altogether saved $224.52. The treasurer's report showed that $28-01.77 had been received last year, and they still had a talance of $385.97 on hand. They thanked the mayor, representing the city council, for their liberal donation of $400. The voluntary subscriptions amounted to $872 and the boys themselves paid into the home $669.73. Each boy is charged ten cents a day for meals and lodging. The management last year secured a new superintendent, Mr. Chapman, who was just the man for the position. The report was adopted and the following managing committee was elected for the ensuing year: Hon G W Allan (chairman), and Daniel Wilson (leputy chairman), Hon Mr Hagarty, Hon S H Blake, Lieut-Col Gzowski, John Macondald, B Homer Dixon, K.N.L.; G L Beardmare, F W Kingston, James Michie, J J Woodhouse, S Styner, John Gillespie, Warring Kennedy, Geo Goulding, Robert laidwin, A L Lefroy, W D Finch, C E Fleming, John Bacon, W H Howland, and H O'Brien, medical officer, Dr Oldright; treasurer David Higgins; secretary W B Simpson; superintendent C Chapman; matron Mrs Chapman. At 7 o'clock last night an alarm was rung from bo 75 for a fire in a stable in a lane off the south side of Albert street, between Yonge and James. The stable was used by Smith Bros., who had two horses, two buggies, three sleighs, four set harness, two tons of hay and stable utensils; Mr. Guinane, boot and shoe dealer of 214 Yonge street, who had two set harnes, one buffalo robe and one sleich; and Mr. Brimmer. The fire was accompanied by a dense smoke, and drew an immense crowd to the scene. The building and contents were destroyed but the horses were rescued. Mr. Smith's loss will amount to about $500, which is covered by insurance, Mr. Guinane's loss will amount to about $50; no ;insurance, W. H. Smith and W. J. Cluff were slightly scarched, and the former got nearly left in the bui ding.

Almost simultaneous with the above, another alarm was rung from box 24, corner Queen and Bathurst streets. a fire having broken out in the window of Botsford's dry goods store, corner Queen and Portland slreets. At the same time box 36, corner Yonge and Shuter streets, rang for the fire already signalled by box 75. In the confusion that ensued all the sections rushed to the corner of Queen and Yonge streets, thus leaving the fire at Botsford's to have full sway. The mistake was speedily discovered and three or four sections dashed away west and soon extinguished the flames. A quantity of dress goods was destroyed and a plate glass window burst. Loss about $500.

The laxity of the Kincardine authorities in bringing the woman Burrell to justice was first made known through these columns, and had it not been for Government Detective Murray and The World it is and unlikely that she never would have been punished.

Carpenters out of Work. A World reporter was credibly informed yesterday that there was a large number of carpenters out of work in this city. While the recent strike was in progress all tenders for buildings were withdrawn and contracts about to be closed were held over pending a settlement. The cost of building has increased fully 25 per cent, and many people contemplating building this season have abandoned the idea. Work is therefore scarce, and the prespects of an increased demand for carpenters are not encouraging.

Ross, George Blake, Dani Gearing, Charles Phillips, James Stelley and Wm. Johnston appeared in the police court yesterday at the instance of Abraham Franklin. The complainant and one Rosenthal went to the new fort to buy old clothes. While there some one threw a blanket over him, but he escaped, and they then blanketed Rosenthal, after which they tackled Franklin again and threatened to throw him in the blanket if he did not give them seventy-five cents. It was Phillips who got the $1 bill and he gave Franklin twenty-five cents back, and Johnston stood at the door with a gun. Rosenthal also gave evidence. Only Johnston and Phillips were identified. They were sent to fall for three days. Their companions were discharged.
