On Saturday Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition for Ontario lunched their leader, Mr. Moredith, at the Queen's. Thirty-one out of the thirty-two Conservative members of the Legislature attended. The absent one was Mr. Creighton, who was to have presided. Owing to illness his place was taken by Mr. Wood, with Mr. Monk, the whip, in the vice-chair. Mr. Wood, on behalf of the Opposition, presented Mr. Meredith with a crayon portrait of himself. Speeches were made by Messrs. Wood, H. E. Clarke, Monk and E. F. Clarke, Mr. Meredith proposed the health of their whip, Mr. Monk, and Dr. Willoughby and Mr. Morgan replied for the ladles. The thirty-one seems to have had a pleasant time all by themselves and they say they are prouder than ever of their leader. The Toronto Vocal Society's concert to night. securing the office were discussed. The opinion was freely expressed in some quarters that the office may be divided. Mr. Leys of Toronto, it is said, would be the man had he not obtained a seat in the House. It is further stated that Mr. Leys has frequently said that it is the only office within thegift of the Government that he would accept. Hon, Mr. Pardee would make a popular choice, so far as the House is concerned. Up to last night, as far as outside appearances went, it seemed to be anybody's fight. Second Reading Agreed to. LONDON, April 13.—Sir Bernhard Samuelson's amendment to the Crimes Bill, to the effect that the bill, if passed, would increase the dis-order in Ireland and endanger the Union and the Empire and, therefore, should be rejected was deleated by a vote of 370 to 280, and the second reading of the Crimes Bill was agreed to without a division.

The Citizens' Band. There was a large attendance of the Citizens' Band Committee in the Board of Trade room yesterday, Mr. Philip Jacobi presiding. It was decided to engage twelve or fourteen players at once to bring the band up to the required number. Of the $6000 required all is subscribed except $1000, which the committee expect to receive within a few days. T is proposed that the band shall give public concerte every week during the summer, week about in Clarence-square, Queen's Park, River-dale Park and Horticultural Gardens. A dis-tinet uniform will likely be adopted as soon as the band gets into working order. The members of Doric Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will hold their annual conversazione in the Masonic Hall on Thursday night next. A great many tickets have been sold, and the affair promises to be an enjoyable one. Slightly Inconsistent.

These resolutions were then moved and adopted, eloquent speeches being made by the gentlemen entrusted with their introduction. Rev. Dr. Burns, who spoke for an hour and a quarter, referred in moderate language to Lord Lansdowne's treatment of his tenants.
Moved by Rev. Dr. Burns of Hamilton, seconded by Father McGrath of Kingston, that we hereby emphatically enter our hearty protest against the Coercion Bill with which reland is at present threatened, and we declare our conviction that the state of the country does not require it; that it is a wanton means the the trish people, and can only tend to increase the oppression and desperation of an oppressed people.
Moved by A. J. Jury and seconded by Patrick Boyle: Resolved that the only remedy applicable to the Irish people is a full measure of legislative independence similar to that mow enjoyed by Canada, by the granting of which the peace and safety of the Empire.

The commission appointed by the recent quarter sessions to examine into the charge of blackmail against County Constable Waites met yesterday morning at the Court House. It met yesterday morning at the Court House. It consisted of Ald. Baxter, J.P., chairman; Mr. J. M. Wingfield, J.P., and Dr. Bull, J.P. It will be remembered that in a libel suit against the News by a Mrs. Bennett, who was subse-quently convicted of perjury in the case, she stated that Waites had blackmailed her to the entert of $20. Mr. Instice Armour was the stated that Waites had blackmailed her to the extent of $30. Mr. Justice Armour was the presiding judge. At the last assizes Judge Armour was on the bench, while Waites was a witness in a criminal case which was tried. The judge expressed surprise that Waites should still be a County Constable after the revelations in the Bencett case. Out of this came the investigation. The evidence of the witnesses. Thomas Utiley. Thomas Warson, James Langdon and Mr. Levison went to prove Waites' entire inno-cence of the charge. It was shown that he had borrowed $50 from Mrs. Bennett, but that he and Langdon had given a joint note for the amount. The magistrates agreed that there was no foundation for the charge and exonerated Mr. Waites by acquitting him honorably. Waites is regarded as a frat-class County Constable.

A Russian Attack Feared. LONDON, April 18.-The Ameer of Afghan istan, in refusing to comply with a request from the Governor of Badakshan for 15,000 from the Governor of Badakshan for 10,000 troops, fearing a Russian attack, says that he must concentrate every soldier in the army around Herat, where a surprise is expected daily. He says English help may come too late or not at all, as the British Government may select Candahar as the first place to stop the Russian advance.
