Grain and Produce.

Grain was comparatively quiet to-day in the leading markets, with a slight decline from resterlays prices in Liverpool, but Beerbohm reports continue favorable. In Chicago, New York and the lake ports prices remained firm and the demand good.
On sall this morning at the local exchange two cars of No. 2 spring. December delivery, sold at $2c, and two cars of No. 2 red winter at no-day, or in other words the clause of the constitution dealing with the failure to deliver grain. A flum had failed in this respect, and the constitution provides that in that case the officers of the board shall buy and deliver the quantity within twenty four fours, at such price as can be arranged, the delinquent to pay whatever it may be.

Cox & Co.'s private wire from Chicago today says. dey says:

Deliveries of wheat, corn and oats light. The market was steady, but only for local trading. The lates cables are quiet. The prospect is not thought promising for any immediate builge. There is no specis feature in form. Trading was heavy but mostly in the buil side.

LOCAL STREET MARKET.
