MARKETS AND HEALTH MATTERS

Discussed by the Standing Committee Yes-terday—St. Lawrence Market Leases, Ald. Frankland, the new chairman of the Markets and Health Committee, proved himself a worthy successor to his predecessor, exald. Johnston, in the meeting held yesterday. There were present Ald. enlarge the area of the western cattle enlarge the area of the western cattle market to place St. Lawrence Market in a better condition and completing the improvements as soon as possible, to establish a fruit market at some point near the bay, and also a proper fish market. The chairman also advocated the appointment of a sub-committee to discuss the ferry system and report. The first business before the committee was the hearing of appeals by several parties desiring eating licenses against the action of Inspector Awde in refusing them. Inspectors Stephen and Armstrong appeared to support Mr. Awde, as it was on their report that the licenses had been withheld. Pete Green, York-street, and J. H. Purse were given the desired permission, but the appeals of C. W. Chessar and R. Barnes were held over until next meeting to enable Inspector Stephen to prove his aflegations against them. Ald, E. A. Macdonald protested against the hearing of these trivial cases. He got a resolution through recommending to council the framing of a bylaw giving the control of the eating houses to the Police Commissioners.

Ald, M. J. Woods protested strongly against

Ald. M.J. Woods protested strongly against the dilatory manner in which the repairs to the St. Lawrence-market were being carried on. There were leakages all over, and some of the stalls were full of water. All he could say further was that the lessees must be very good natured to stand the state of things as long as they did. The City Commissioner explained that the work was being held back waiting the arrival of iron girders from Germany. He was instructed to hurry things along as quickly as possible.

Secretary Somers read a communication from the Grand Jury of the December Sessions, calling the attention of the committee to the bad quality of the bread supplied to the jail. Jail Steward Griffiths explained that the matter had been mended and that the bread was all right now.

A committee composed of Ald. Crocker, Hill and Moses was appointed to act in concert with the Local Board of Health to take action towards abating the smoke nuisance. The Ferry Bylaw sub-committee was struck with Ald. Crocker, St. Leger, J. E. Verral and Woods as members.

John Courtenay, the caretaker of the Smallpox Hospital, sent in an application for an increase of salary from $10 to $20 per month. The committee could not see its way clear to consider the application favorably.

A letter from the Assistant City Solicitor was read in which it was stated that the sity could not use the land in the vicinity of the Cattle Market to enlarge it without the consent of J. B. Smith & Co., who held a lease of it up to 1895. The matter will be enquired into by a sub-committee.

There was quite a lively discussion over St. Lawrence market butchers' stalls and their leases. James Park had applied for leave to transfer the lease of one of his stalls to William Guile. He was paying the city $70 a year for it, and he had arranged with Guile to get $120. Atd. Crocker and Hewitt objected as it looked like trafficking in city property. Ald. Crocker, Hill, St. Leger, Woods and Hewitt were appointed a sub-committee to take up the whole question of market leases.

The Remedy allays inflammation, separates adhesions, softens indurations, and strengthens the abdominal wall, so that in a few weeks or a few months, depending of course upon the age of the patient and the length of time he has been ruptured, the use of the truss may be entirely discontinued. A box of the Remedy for a single rupture usually lasts six or eight weeks, and in recent cases is quite sufficient to effect a permanent cure; double rupture and cases of long standing naturally require a larger quantity.
