mr. Dunstan, manager of the company, said that the poles had been erected under the supervision of the Deputy City Engineer. All the poles had been removed off the streets according to the agreement, with the exception of Bloor east, and these were left there as it was not thought advisable to tear up the street at present.

On motion of Ald. Saunders, the question was referred to the City Engineer and Solicitor.

Ald. Lamb, J.J. Graham, Saunders, Hubbard and Crane were appointed a sub-committee to enquire into the advisability of constructing a proper crossing over the tracks at Lansdowne-avenue.

Accounts for water supplied the city during the repairing of the conduit were ordered paid as follows: West Toronto Junction, $660; North Toronto, $200; East Toronto, $71.

On motion of Ald. Lamb, it was recommended that the Assessment Commissioners and the City Surveyor, with the City Solicitor, be instructed to proceed at once to settle up all matters connected with the Don Improvement, including the fixing of the rental to be paid by the Belt Line Railway Company and the assessments to be made under the Don Improvement Act.

Mr Farquhar Was Personal.

A letter was read from Contractor A. Farquhar, which contained a personal attack on Chaiman Lamb. The contractor claimed that Ald. Lamb through personal spite worked against him at every opportunity, and further, that he (Farquhar) had asked Ald. Lamb if he was receiving remuneration from an opposition firm.

Ald Lamb said while he had nothing against Mr. Farquhar, he considered that the letter was the most contemptible ever sent to a committee. The chairman was backed up by the company and the assessments to be made under the Don Improvement.

congratulated the pulse of them of learning bookkeeping and office work according to the requirements of Canadian business men. Such a training was a most valuable one as it was alving representation of what occurred in actual commercial life, and no one could complete the course and obtain the diploma of the British-American Business College without being infinitely better qualified to perform the duties which would devolve upon him. Looking back upon the commercial history of Toronto during the past 25 or 30 years it was sad to reflect that only a small percentage of those who went into business were ultimately successful; nearly 95 per cent. were failures. Such a proportion would never exist if intending merchants would avail themselves of the copportunity to attend a college like this, for he could assure them the education received here would do very much to put them in the ranks of the successful per cent. The causes of commercial failure were reviewed, chief among them being incompetency, inaptitude for business, extravagance, specilation and intemperance. The speaker importance of working zealously in the interests of their employers. Business men are only too glad to get hold of conscientious young men, and some of the most desirable partnerships have been formed where one partner had only business aptitude and integrity to put in against the other's capital. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Cockburn by the students. The chair was occupied by Mr. Edw. Trout, president of the college.

Christmas favel to Europe
As was expected, the Cunard Line SS. Etruria, being the last steamer from America which will reach England in good time for Christmas, is rapidly filling up in her second cabin and steerage departments, and will likely sail with all berths in these classes filled. As usual, there are a large number wishing to spend Christmas at "Home," and as in most cases the object is to spend as short a time as possible on the trip, the majority choose the Cunard Line as being the most dependable.

Lungs Closed Up.

Gents,—In the early part of the winter I caught a bad cold, followed by a severe cough. I could not sleep, as my lungs seemed closed up. I could walk only a few yards without stopping to get breath. I sent for your Emulsion, and before I had finished the third bottle the cough was gone, I could breathe freely, and felt like a new man. I advise all sufferers from coughs, colds or asthmat to give Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion a tria.
