BEST CARNIVAL OF THEM ALL

Unanimous Verdict of the Four Hundred Skaters and Spectators Present
LIST OF PRIZE WINNERS
Costumes Distinguished by Variety And Taste. Good Musical Programme And Evening's Splendid Enjoyment.

Wednesday night's carnival at the new rink was as predicted the best ever. Ideal weather conditions for one of the first occasions where a special affair was put on, a record attendance and an unusually large and varied display in costumes, both beautiful and grotesque, for the pleasure of the skaters and the entertainment of a very large number of spectators.

The officials for the occasion were: Mr. W. H. Maxwell, Mrs. Madge Beckwith and Mrs. Malcolm B. Davis. The prize divisions were first and second to the prettiest and most original and first and second to the funniest.

Prize for the most prettily costumed lady went to Mrs. Lucy Murtha, who looked very charming as "A Bride of Fifty Years Ago."

The prizes for funniest costumes went to Miss Mary Anthony, representing "Auntie". Her fit out was the most ludicrous combination imaginable—a veritable scream.

Second prize went to Gladstone Parker and Thomas Beattie as "Jumping Ants". The made-up elephant was conducted around the rink by Reggie Meek and excited much mirth.

A special prize given by Mr. W. H. Maxwell was awarded to Miss Marion Lessel, who had a very striking costume representing a "Butterfly".

There were, of course, the usual number of clowns and hoboos on the ice among the gentlemen skaters. The ladies appeared to have a penchant for Spanish representations and some of these were very tastefully and prettily gotten up.

COY INSTITUTIONS ENTERTAINMENT

Inmates Greatly Delighted With Programme Under Auspices St. James Church

Weather Conditions Unfavorable But Many Present Made the Evening a Success.
Bad weather, drifted roads, and sickness, very seriously interfered with the entertainment given in the "Recreation Hall" of the County Institutions for the benefit of the inmates, on Tuesday last, under the auspices of St. James Church.

At the commencement—the chairman announced that the farce; "Old Cronies", had to be dropped, messages having laid low one of the participants only the day before. The musical portion of the programme had also to undergo considerable revision, work having been received as late as six o'clock that evening that drifted roads and other causes made it impracticable for several performers to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fritz, of Port George, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Ervin Morse. Under the auspices of the W.M.A. a supper was served at the hall, Jan'y 31st. The night was a perfect one, and a large number attended. A pleasant time was enjoyed and a neat supper realized for Missions.

Mr. and Mrs. Emilon Banks spent Thursday, the 7th, in Brooklyn, visiting friends. C. S. Rogers has resumed work in lumber camps, having been driven out for awhile by the unusually heavy fall of snow.

Carl Bertain, who has been in B. C. for the past three years, is visiting his old home, expecting to return again in a short time.

DALHOUSIE WEST

Mr. Fredie Balcorn, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his home in Paradise. Rev. Mr. Freestone held service here in the Methodist Church, Feb'y. 2nd.

Mr. Harcourt Daniels, who has been a recent guest at the home of Mr. David Shipp, has returned to his home in Paradise. Mrs. Norman Buckler, who accompanied her daughter, Miss Lillian Buckler, to the V. G. Hospital, has returned home.

ANNUAL AT HOME ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Belleisle Hall Crowded And a Delightful Evening Spent By All
THE BEST YET
Food For The Body And Entertainment For The Intellect in Due Proportion.

Time was then this annual family gathering taxed the capacity of Belleisle Hall, but during the past decade the "Great Reaper" and rural exodus has cut the congregation of St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, almost in half. Notwithstanding this, however, the annual "At Home" still means one of the most delightful evenings conceivable, and one held last Thursday was no exception to the rule.

Supper was announced at 6:30 sharp. Of itself, this is always a feature, but garnished with the wit of such stalwarts as Uncle John, Rate, backed by their families, it becomes a positive feast. When one passes a quip another is always equal to meet it, and so the meal becomes the occasion of much merriment.

The inner man satisfied, an opportunity arises, whilst tables are being cleared and stoved away, for somewhat more intimate conversation—a group here and a group there, within the hall, whilst without some retiring for a breath of fresh air try to warm it a bit and discuss the merits (or demerits) of the various smoking mixtures, albeit not the ones they have recently eaten. They are always the best.

Re-assembling, the entertainment is brought on. As year succeeds year, wonder is expressed, as to what is possible with the reduced numbers. But, somehow, the difficulty is overcome and "the best year," becomes the unanimous verdict. Certainly the "bill of fare" provided last Thursday evening has no need to apologize to that which preceded it.

The first item was a playlet entitled: "A Premature Proposal". This was intensely funny and interpreted by such seasoned impersonators as Mrs. R. L. Dodge (without whom no play in Belleisle would seem quite complete) and Mr. Ernest Bent, ably assisted by Miss Josie Whillet and Miss Florence Young, provoked much laughter.

This was followed by "Blossom Bells" sweetly sung by the Misses Marion and Elizabeth Bent; speeches by Mr. A. F. Hiltz, Bridgetown, and Chapel-Warden Alfred Gesner, and a couple of songs by the rector.
