THE KNITTING LESSON.

Do the little readers of DEW DROPS remember reading not long ago about Mary's little lamb, and how the yarn made of its wool was sold on cards at a charity sale ?

Well, this little girl's aunt bought several of the cards for her niece, who was very fond of the verses about Mary's lamb. Instead of leaving the thread on the cards, she thought she would like to make it into a pair of little garters for her doll. So Aunt Hetty is teaching her how to knit.

At first she found it very hard to manage the two needles, and often dropped stitches. But she is doing better now, and is really getting along very well for such a little girl. She is a careful little worker, slow but sure. Already she has learned to crochet, and has made several wash-cloths with pretty red edging around them.

READY TO GO OUT.

"Mamma, dear, may I go to see little cousin Lillie ?" asked Maudie Grey of her mamma one morning, "'cause you know she is sick and cannot go out, so I would like to go and take her that pretty little rose that has just come out," "Yes," said mamma, "and I will go with you to see her too." So Maudie is all ready waiting for mamma, and is delighted at the prospect of a lovely walk through the park.
