

Christian church, an honour which comparatively few of God's people enjoy. This little band have taken a noble stand, and we have every reason to believe that the great object which they and their Pastor have in view is to make known to all their fellow-men the free and unfettered gospel of Christ. We hope that the infant church will soon increase and become an instrument in diffusing those grand evangelical truths which are indispensable to meet the wants both of the church and of the world. We would close this short notice by asking an interest in the prayers of all the people of God. Brethren pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified.

CORRESPONDENCE.

When the American Branch of the Evangelical Union of Scotland was formed last July, in the Town of Guelph, the President was appointed to correspond with the Secretary of the E. U. Conference, requesting it to recognize our organization, and also do something to strengthen our hands and encourage our hearts. We have received the following answer which we publish in the present number of the Day-Star, knowing that all the friends of our Evangelical movement on this side the Atlantic, will be pleased to learn that our application, as far as recognition is concerned, has met with a hearty response.

To the American Branch of the Evangelical Union of Scotland.

BELoved BRETHREN,—The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

According to your desire, the Evangelical Union Conference has cordially acknowledged you as the American Branch of the Evangelical Union of Scotland. Your zeal and devotion to the cause of our common Lord, and your forwardness to extend those simple and world-embracing views of the Gospel in which we rejoice, have greatly refreshed our hearts, and have inspired us with the hope that the Evangelical Union tree, planted in the soil of Scotland, a soil sacred by the blood of martyrs, will yet spread forth its vigorous branches, not only in America, but also in all lands, and bear fruit to the glory of God, and the eternal weal of souls.

As pioneers in rectifying theological thought, and in giving enlarged conceptions of the love of the Triune God, you in America, and we in Britain, have an arduous yet noble mission. At present our theological position brings not a little obloquy upon us. It also excludes us from fraternal co-operation with the large, influential, Calvinistic denomina-
