The Two Essays Combined in One Volume, Cloth bound, 60 cents.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.—It has been deemed that the time has come to call public attention to the increased obligation laid upon the stewards of God's bounty by the opening of new doors for missionary effort everywhere, the increased demands for the exercise of Christian philanthropy, and the increased ability of the Church of Christ to respond to appeals presented to its consideration. Hence the recent invitation, by a gentleman who takes a deep interest in the subject of systematic benevolence, to write upon this important subject of which this volume is the outcome. In response to that invitation, five-and-twenty essays were submitted—several of them of a high order of merit. The committee of adjudication found itself under the necessity of recommending the division of the prize of £50 stg., generously offered, between the writers of the essays bearing the titles, "Occupy Till I Come" (in Greek) and "Theophilus Philander." These essays were found to have been written respectively by the Rev. Charles A. Cook, Pastor of the Parliament Street Baptist Church, Toronto, and the Rev. James Cooke Seymour, Methodist Minister, Thomasburg, Ont. These essays are given to the world with the prayer that they may largely promote the grace of Christian giving, and thus hasten the coming of the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
