Mrs. Surratt's Spiritual Adviser.

Rev. A. J. Walter, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Washington, died suddenly in that City in April.

Father Walter became pastor of St. Patrick's church in 1860. He was the spiritual adviser of Mrs. Surratt and interested himself in her case, appealing to President Johnson on several occasions for a commutation of her sentence. He believed in her innocence and became so enthusiastic in his attempt to have her pardoned that his action became offensive to some citizens of Washington, who informed him that if he persisted in his efforts he would be summarily dealt with. His answer was: "I fear neither man nor devil; I fear God alone, and I am ready at the risk of my life to defend the character of the lowliest person in my congregation."
