

OUR ANNIVERSARY NUMBER

The October number of "The Canadian Magazine" will mark the close of the twenty-fifth volume. This is a new record in Canadian literary annals and will be the occasion of an Anniversary Number. This will have a special cover and will be larger than usual. Among the distinguished contributors will be Sir Gilbert Parker, Beckles Willson, Robert Barr, W. A. Fraser, Louis Frechette, (the late) William McLennan, Norman Duncan, Jean Blewett, Duncan Campbell Scott, Eve Brodlique, and others. It will be, it is hoped, the finest number of this publication ever issued. The illustrations will be as special as the contents. Copies ordered to be mailed to any address in the British Empire, except India and Australia, are free of postage. Copies to other points will be 33 cents.

AN INDEX TO VOLUME 24 WILL BE MAILED ON APPLICATION.
