SCHOOL GRANT RESOLUTION DISCUSSED IN THE N. W. ASSEMBLY. A Bill Introducing Uniform Text Books...

A despatch from Regina last Wednesday informs us that in the North West Parliament, Mr. Cayley submitted the committee's report in favor of urging the Federal Government to place land titles offices in the Territories under the control of the Assembly.

Mr. Oliver (Edmonton) introducing a bill respecting elections, including provisions for ball voting. Mr. Haultain and Mr. Tweed moved an important set of resolutions in school grants, the discussion of which occupied most of the afternoon.

Mr. Haultain and Mr. Tweed moved an important set of resolutions in school grants, the discussion of which occupied most of the afternoon. A final vote was taken upon the resolutions provided for the payment by the Assembly of a grant to schools of seventy per cent. of an amount to be calculated as follows: $184 for every third-class teacher, $3 for every pupil in average daily attendance over $22.50 for every pupil in daily attendance above standard three, and $20 extra for every second-class teacher, and $20 extra for each first-class teacher.

Ledie as recognizing the commercial value of an English education, and contended that whereas French was gradually evaporating from the schools, it would be folly to pass such a clause as brought in by Mr. Mowat, which would only be a source of irritation.

THE CORN EXCHANGE HOLIDAY.

Mr. Carran's Clever and Witty Speech. Mr. J. J. Carran, M.P., was heartily received. He said that for some years past, at their annual gatherings, the Corn Exchange had directed the founder of their political movement to be enlarged, and they evidently considered that he should reply, not only for the House of Commons, but for the Government of Canada.

John Murphy & Co's ADVERTISEMENT.

is the timely descriptive term which the manager of the Department applies to the following items. The sacrifice inseparable from such reductions certainly implies desperate lines from our point of view.

"A Slaughter of the Innocents," and believes itself of superfluous stock by consigning to some Lawyers' Limbo or other the mammoth opus of many a bad-dit statesman, so, before the 1st of September, and in advance of the opening of the Fall season, we have determined to make a clearance on our Mantle Floor at whatever cost. We initiate the holocaust to-day.

RELIGIOUS NEWS ITEMS.

A Catholic Polish Congress will assemble at Posen at the end of September. This is the second of the kind, the first having been held last year at Thorn, when Mgr. Stabiewski, then Præposit of Wrochlo, pronounced his famous discourse on socialism and Polish nationality.

It is possible that the Catholic university in Washington will soon lose its Vice-rector, Dr. P. J. Giligan, by election to the bishopric of Springfield, Mass. It is known, however, that he does not seek the new place, but has tried to prevent his name being sent with others to Rome for appointment.

The rapidly with which the ranks of the cardinal college are thinned out can be judged from the fact that during the life-time of the present Pope no less than eighty-two cardinals have passed away; and the preponderance of the Italians in the college is shown by the announcement that of those eighty-two fifty were born in Italy.

Archbishop O'Brien, at St. Mary's cathedral, Halifax, on July 19, read the official documents from Pope Leo conferring the title of Monsignor on the Very Rev. Canon Carmody, V.G., rector of St. Patrick's church, and the degree of D.D. on the Rev. Edward F. Murphy, rector of St. Mary's Cathedral.

The Abbe Alouffe, director-general of the Greek and French Catholic schools of the diocese of Ra'he and of Bekaa in Colesyria, has been named officer of the French Academy for a history of France in three volumes in Arabic. The same decoration has been conferred on Brother Hermias of the Christian Schools, principal director of the establishments of his congregation in Hain.

Contrary to statements in certain German papers, Herr von Bulow, has been appointed Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary to the Holy See from the Court of Prussia. The German Emperor confirmed the decree appointing him so late as the 15th of July, and his nomination officially appears in the observator Romano this week.

The Nestorian Patriarch, Mgr. Chinnou, has been converted to Catholicity. The Archbishop of Ormid has received him into the Church, and the mitred abbot of the community of Saint Ormid is traversing the Nestorian villages of Kurdistan, and welcoming the re-conversion back to the faith. "Ergo ergo," says the former Patriarch, "we shall be all sons of the father"—that is the Pope.

A very good idea of a thing which has taken a peculiar shape in Chicago, where a number of good Catholic ladies have started a nursery for the care and instruction during the daytime of neglected children. There is plenty of room for such an institution in many another city than Chicago, and it is to be hoped that the good example set by these Catholic Chicago ladies will not be long confined to their own municipality.

GREAT GOOD LUCK

OF ERIC JOHNSON.

Wins $2,500 Cash by a Fortunate Investment in the Louisiana State Lottery.

HAPPIEST MAN IN CHICAGO. Will Put His Money into Real Estate and Thus Increase His Wealth. Will Try Again.

Eric Johnson of No. 113 Wesson street, Chicago, is a lucky man. He owns different degrees of luck. Some are lucky to be alive, while others prize good food as only when it comes in the form of something they desire. "The roads," says Eric, "are in other words, no way presents this desire in mine out of ten cases."

Then is Mr. Johnson's lucky investment. He has won $2,500 in the Louisiana State Lottery. For several years he has been paying a tribute to this institution, and at last he has received his reward.

Mr. Johnson, with his wife and son, occupies three rooms on the lower floor of the flats at No. 113 Wesson Street. Mr. Johnson rents the entire building and sub-rents the rooms. He is employed by the coconut factory at Nos. 32 and 34 Kirze Street, although receiving by a moderate stipend for his services, is like most of us naturally, thrifty. In fact he is so much so that he has been able to purchase a farm of 160 acres in Wyoming, the title of which is in the name of his wife.

Mr. Johnson said in regard to his good luck: "I purchased a one-fourth part of a ticket for the June drawing, after a habit I have followed for many months. On receiving the list of winning numbers I unfolded it with the same mingled feelings of hope and fear which I have no doubt every one feels who invests in lottery tickets. When I saw in bold black figures the $10,000 prize of positive the number of my ticket, I glanced at the list, my brain froze and mentally charged with trepidation."

Then my son took the list from my hand and comparing it with my ticket, told me I had won $2,500. Then my wife and I began to discuss how the money should be invested. We agreed that we will buy real estate but just where we will make the purchase we have not decided. We shall continue to reside at this place and I shall not give up my position at the factory."

"Have you won anything before?"

FREELY GOOD INVESTMENT.

"Not any great amount. At different times I have had a number which approximated some prize, and have received from $25 to $50. This prize of $2,500, however, is the first of any amount that I have won."

"Do you consider the Louisiana State Lottery a safe investment?"

"It has a certainly proved so to me. One dollar a month is not much to invest, and if it yields such interest to any one, even once in ten years, it proves itself an investment to which no banker could take exception. Any way it has proved a good friend to me and my old wife and I shall stay with it.—Chicago Daily Globe, July 24.

never take a hold of a new thing until forced into it. A great many people would not have a telephone until loss of trade obliged them to. We believe that there are people who will suffer with colds, rheumatism, grippe, etc., rather than buy Rigby clothing, because they are a new thing, and they have joggled along without them so long.
