executors under the style of E. Fair & Co. By the terms of the will the business will be disposed of and the capital invested as directed. A local newspaper regrets that the town is to be deprived of a firm having attained such a well-deserved reputation for honesty and probity, and hopes that the successors, whoever they may be, will be able to perpetuate the good name of Melville, Fair & Co.

In consideration of a free grant of ten acres of land and tax exemption for ten years, Messrs. Polson & Co., of this city, will remove the shipbuilding branch of their business to Owen Sound. A channel will be dredged in front of the property, and the first vessel built will be the new iron one for the Canadian Pacific railway. The Messrs. Polson will continue their engine-building and general machinery work at their present premises on the Esplanade in this city.

Mr. C. E. Hires, of Philadelphia, who claims to be the largest dealer in Mexican vanilla beans, says that advices from Mexico respecting the present year's crop are of the most favorable character. The season was one of the best known for many years, and while the crop is not large (being but about 700 cases), yet in size, length, plumpness, and superiority of flavor it excels the product of any preceding year since 1880. The first shipment of new has been received.
