Mercantile Summary.

THE business men of Brockville have organized a Board of Trade.

It is ascertained that the Chicago banks will not lose more than ten per cent. of their loans on the average. About seventy-five per cent. of the total insurances will be paid notwithstanding the failure of so many companies.

The following is the list of the new insolvents as published in the Quebec Official Gazette or Saturday 28th inst.:—L. P. Vohl, of the firm or Lemay, Vohl & Co., Quebec; William Carter, grocer, Montreal; Louis Champeau, contractor, Montreal.

A HALIFAX correspondent says that the late gales have done much damage to fishermen along the coast of Nova Scotia. Apart from this, business in that province is very prosperous.
The trade in fish and flour especially is dull just now for various reasons, but is likely soon to revive.
