CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

His Grace the archbishop intends to visit Fort Francis on the 18th inst.

Rev. Father St. Germain returned to his mission at Fort Ellice on Thursday.

Branch No. 52 of the C. M. B. A. hold a regular meeting at Trinity Hall this evening.

The number of patients treated at the St. Boniface Hospital last week was 53, of whom 35 were males and 18 females.

His Grace the Archbishop left on the west train on Thursday with the intention of visiting Oak Lake and Deloraine where he is to administer the sacrament of confirmation.

Rev. Father Lacombe who has been east presenting the claims of his Half-breed settlers regarding lands and patents, passed through the city on his way west last week, spending one day as the guest of His Grace the archbishop.

Rev. Father Cherrier announced at High Mass at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday that until further notice a sermon will be given every Sunday evening between Vespers and Benediction. The Vesper service will be considerably shortened so that the congregation will not be kept much, if any, longer than heretofore.

On Sunday evening last Rev. Father Cherrier continued the series of instructions he has been for some time giving on the Apostles' Creed. He spoke on "the Communion of Saints" and delivered a most instructive discourse which was listened to with the greatest attention by a large congregation amongst whom were noticed several strangers.

On Monday evening next the members of the Catholic Truth society re-open their fall and winter series of meetings. It is hoped by the officers that there will be a large attendance of members. Addresses will be delivered by several of the brothers, and the programme for future meetings decided upon. The improvements made in the hall on Water street in the spring, and which we described at the time, will tend to make the headquarters of the society a pleasant meeting place for the members during the coming months.

The annual retreat of the Oblate Fathers of the Archdiocese closed on Wednesday last, His Grace the archbishop presiding at the concluding function. The following day most of the Fathers left the city for the scene of their missionary labors. Rev. Father Boisrime, of Ottawa, who preached the sermons during the retreat returned to his home the same day. Rev. Father Blais went to Rat Portage as Superior at that point, where he will be assisted by Rev. Fathers Fox and George. Father Baudin will assist Father Cahill at the Fort Francis mission.

On Friday last the inmates of the St. Boniface orphanage had a most enjoyable day outing at Elm Park. They were taken to the Park on the electric cars free and were given free rides on the merry-go-round by the proprietor, Mr. Young. The outing was arranged and superintended by the following ladies of St. Mary's Parish: Mrs. Cass, Mrs. Monchamp, Mrs. Marrin, and Mrs. Jobin, who, we are sure, were amply repaid for the trouble they took by the unbounded enjoyment of the little ones.

The open air concert in the grounds at the Archbishop's Palace, St. Boniface, on Wednesday last was a great success, and the promoters are not only to be congratulated, but to be thanked for providing so enjoyable an entertainment. The scene in the grounds was a very fairy land and the vocal selections given by Miss Barrett and Mr. Clark, as well as the pieces rendered by the St. Boniface band were all excellent. During the evening His Grace the archbishop held a reception at which many hundreds of people attended, and he was presented by St. Mary's Ladies' Aid society with a valuable bracelet for which he returned his most sincere thanks.

That indefatigable worker in the cause of Catholic immigration, the Rev. Father Morin, was in town last week en route to his settlement north of Edmonton. We were glad to hear that his people there have met with great success this year, and have just harvested the best crop they have taken off since they have been there. Father Morin intends to make a collection of grains, grasses and roots which will first be exhibited at Montreal and afterwards be retained as a permanent exhibition at the emigration office which is being opened by the Rev. Father Corbeil. Father Cloutier is busy making a similar collection in Manitoba so that all sections of the country will be thoroughly advertised in the Province of Quebec during the coming winter, and the prospects are a good number of new settlers will be the result.

The Catholic Schools of the city all re-opened after the long summer holiday on Tuesday, and at each institution the attendance of pupils was larger than ever before. This continued increase in the number of scholars, and the regularity and promptness which mark their attendance, shows how thoroughly the schools are appreciated by Catholic parents, and the immense sacrifices the parents make to maintain them prove how deep rooted is their desire that their children shall not only have the best chance possible to obtain a sound secular education, but shall also be trained in the knowledge of divine religion and in the practice of virtue.

CATHOLIC ORDER OF FORESTERS.

Sick Benefits Discontinued by the Winnipeg court, No. 276.

We are requested by the recording secretary of St. Mary's court No. 276 of the Catholic Order of Foresters to announce that the by-law under which sick benefits have heretofore been paid has been rescinded. All members are requested to bear in mind therefore that for the future and until further notice no such benefits will be paid.

Kemnay Notes.

Rev. Father Jubenville the new parish priest of Brandon, visited the Catholic families of Kemnay on Tuesday. The reverend gentleman, though very young, is full of energy and zeal and will make a model pastor. From Kemnay he proceeded to Oak Lake to meet His Grace the archbishop, who arrived there on Thursday night and administered the sacrament of confirmation on Friday morning to some twenty-five candidates amongst whom was an elderly convert who was received into the church about two months ago.

A preliminary meeting of young men interested in the organization of a Court of Catholic Foresters was held in Brandon on Friday evening.

A large number of clergymen went west on Thursday night's express. Amongst them was the veteran missionary, Rev. Father Lacombe.

A young man named Roway, 20 years of age, who came to Kemnay from Chicago last spring, met with a painful, if not fatal, accident, on his grandfather's farm, four miles south of here on Thursday morning last. He was bringing home a wagon loaded with grain when he was thrown from the load by the breaking of the front of the rack and the wheels passed over his head crushing in both jaw bones. He was picked up insensible. Two doctors were soon in attendance and rendered all the relief possible; but little hope is entertained for saving his life.

A SECOND BEREAVEMENT.

Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Barrett Lose Another Daughter.

God has once more visited the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Barrett at Lake of the Woods and in His infinite wisdom and goodness has seen fit to take another of their little ones to himself. This time it is Eva (Mary Eva Benedicta) whom they mourn, and only those who are intimate with the family, and know the close and affectionate ties which bind all the members together, will be able to realize the full extent of the bereavement which those remaining have suffered in the removal from their midst of one they so dearly loved for her sweet manners, her bright and lovely disposition, which made her the joy and the comfort of her parents and the delight of all her brothers and sisters. The sad event occurred on Sunday evening last about 7 o'clock after what must have been a very short illness, for although we have received no particulars on this point, we know that as late as the previous Wednesday she was in the best of health and spirits. At the time of her death she was just ten years and one month old having been born at St. Catharines, Ont., on the 1st August 1.85; and she had the great happiness of making her first communion on the day she died. Father Cahill being present and administering all the last rites of the church, which is, we are sure, a source of great consolation to her parents. The funeral took place on Tuesday at the Catholic cemetery, Rat Portage, the remains being laid to rest side by side with those of her sister Monica who preceded her by only a few short weeks. There is no need for us to say that the sorrowing family will have the heartfelt sympathy of everyone who hears of this their second bereavement within such a brief period, and many prayers will be offered in their behalf to the Heavenly Father of all mercies, who alone is able to comfort and console them at such a time.
