

Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son.....

By GEORGE HORACE LORIMER

Editor of The Saturday Evening Post

"This is a book full of peculiarly American wit and humor, with an under-current, at least, of practical wisdom. John Graham is a big man in Chicago and head of the house of Graham & Co., pork packers. He is familiarly known as "Old Gorgon Graham," while his son, Pierrpont, to whom the letters are addressed, is humorously called by his intimates "Piggy."—N.Y. Times Saturday Review.

The Illustrations are exceptionally clever and amusing.

Cloth, $1.25, post paid.

ADAMS

"Home Treasure"

We are sole selling agents in Toronto for the Treasure line of Heaters and Ranges—"best in the world." If you contemplate buying a new range this season it would be well to study the merits of these Ranges generally, and note the exclusive improvements in the "Home Treasure," the most perfect cooker and baker in stove-dom-to-day.

The reasons why the "Home Treasure" is so popular are these:

They are built well and are durable.

They work well.

They look well.

They use very little coal and are always ready for business.

The Ventilated Steel Oven is a great feature in the "Home Treasure."
