

OTTAWA

Sunday, October 11

7:25 p.m. Her Majesty and His Royal Highness will arrive at Uplands R.C.A.F. Station, Ottawa by R.C.A.F. Yukon. They will be welcomed by the Governor General and Mme Vanier, by the Prime Minister and Mrs. Pearson (who will have left Quebec for the purpose during the afternoon), by the Dean of the Diplomatic Corps and by the Mayor of Ottawa.

(Since the arrival is on Sunday evening, protocol permits no Guard of Honour, and the arrival ceremonies will be modest. Normal coverage, but with fixed positioning indicated in previous briefings. Press and dark room facilities are available at the airport, and press buses for the Château Laurier will await the departure of the Royal party. Heavy baggage and equipment will follow. The press room for the Ottawa visit will be Room 208 in the West Block of the Parliament Buildings, which will be open upon arrival and specially equipped for press purposes.)

7:35 p.m. The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh leave for Government House where they will dine privately with the Governor General and Mme Vanier.

Monday, October 12

9:00 a.m. Briefings in Press Room No. 208, West Block, Parliament Buildings.

9:50 a.m. The Prime Minister and Mrs. Pearson arrive at Rideau Hall.
