

III. Additional Flights

In case the designated airline of one Contracting Party desires to operate additional flights on the specified route, it shall submit a request to the Aeronautical Authorities of the other Contracting Party forty-eight hours before the departure of the flights in question, which shall be operated only after approvals have been obtained.