

ARTICLE 5
ACCOUNTABILITY

1. UNHCR may repatriate the RCMP officers who unsatisfactory perform or fail to conform to the standards of conduct set out above. One-month notice shall be given to the RCMP officers and the Government in such cases.
2. Any serious breach of the duties and obligations that, in the view of UNHCR, would justify separation before the end of the notice period shall be immediately reported to the Government, with the view to obtaining an immediate cessation of service. UNHCR may decide to limit or bar access to UNHCR premises by the individual involved when the circumstances so warrant.
3. The Government shall reimburse UNHCR for financial loss or for damage to UNHCR owned equipment or property caused by the RCMP officers if such loss or damage (a) occurred outside the performance of services with UNHCR, or (b) arose or resulted from gross negligence or wilful misconduct or violation or reckless disregard of the applicable rules and policies by the RCMP officers.

ARTICLE 6
THIRD-PARTY CLAIMS

UNHCR shall be responsible for dealing with claims by third parties where the loss or damage to their property, or death or personal injury, was caused by the actions or omissions of the RCMP officer in the performance of services to UNHCR under the present agreement. However, if the loss, damage, death or injury arose from gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the RCMP Officer, the Government shall be liable to UNHCR for all amounts paid by UNHCR to the claimants and all cost incurred by UNHCR in settling such claims.

ARTICLE 7
CONSULTATION AND PROJECT EVALUATION

1. UNHCR and the Government shall consult with each other in respect of any matter that may arise in connection with the present agreement.
2. The goals and specific objectives of the RCMP officers' deployment to Guinea under the present agreement shall be the subject of a mid-term review and an end of project evaluation to be conducted jointly by the Parties.

ARTICLE 8
SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any disputes, controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to, the present agreement shall be settled by negotiation or by other mutually agreed mode of settlement.
