

ONE WEST SIXTY-NINTH STREET
New York City, Sept. 28th, 1922.

Sir Arthur Currie,
Principal, McGill University,
Montreal, Canada.

My Dear Sir Arthur;-

I am very sorry that you were not in Montreal when I passed through as there were several matters which I wished to take up with you.

I spent a week-end with Dr. Duncan McEachran at Ormstown and he is somewhat disappointed that his views have not been sought regarding some phases of University activity. As you are aware he is advanced in years and has not the physical nor mental strength he once possessed, yet he has many good ideas and would appreciate very highly an opportunity of presenting his views to you if you could spare the time. He is in Montreal quite frequently or he would make the trip specially to suit your convenience.

In discussing the programme of the Rotary Club of New York I suggested your name as a highly desirable speaker provided a date could be secured when your time was not too fully taken up. You
