DRIVES, ETC., IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

ROUND THE MOUNTAIN. This is considered the favourite drive. The distance round is nearly nine miles. The general route is up the Main Street of the St. Lawrence Suburb, past the toll gate, turn off to the left, and ascend gradually the Mountain side; arriving at a branch road which leads to the Mount Royal Cemetery, we take the road to the right and continue our course till we arrive at Côte des Neiges, which pretty little village lies nestled in the bosom of the mountain, and sheltered by its branching arms from North and East; leaving the village we drive on up the grade and gradually reach the summit, at which a toll gate is placed. Here we are quite shut in on all sides, but as our vehicle turns the curve, we cannot restrain ourselves from indulging in many exclamations of admiration; there, almost at our feet lies the city, with its spires, its houses, its streets. There also is Canada's pride, the Victoria bridge, the Nuns' Island in its glorious verdancy, the glittering river, with many gallant vessels, which, after battling the breeze, now lie quietly at the wharf, either loading or discharging their cargoes. There also is St. Helen's Island, and behind it the spires of the church in Longueuil village. The base of the mountain, almost all around, is adorned with many elegant villas, the palatial summer residences of our merchant princes. The choicest orchards of Lower Canada are also situated around it, the fruit being of the most delicious flavour and greatest luxuriance of yield. Taken as a whole, this is one of the most pleasant drives in Canada.

MOUNT ROYAL CEMETERY is one of those places of interest which travellers never neglect to visit. It is a very pleasant drive of
