

WARD, LOCK & CO.'S

SEVENPENNY NET NOVELS—continued.

THE SECRET.

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM.

"One of the most engrossing stories we have read."—Daily Telegraph.

A DAMAGED REPUTATION.

By HAROLD BINDLOSS.

"Once more we repeat that Mr. Bindloss has stepped into the shoes of the late Seton Merriman."
—Daily Mail.

THE SGUL OF GOLD.

By JUSTUS MILES FORMAN.

This story has been acclaimed by The Daily Telegraph as worthy of much praise and cleverly worked out.

THE MARRIAGE OF ESTHER.

By GUY BOOTHBY.

A story full of action, life, and dramatic interest.

LADY BARBARITY.

By J. C. SNAITH.

"'Lady Barbarity' would cheer a pessimist in a November fog."—Black & White.

BY WIT OF WOMAN.

By A. W. MARCHMONT.

The ingenuity of this exciting story positively takes one's breath away.