

- Villiers, Coulon de, i, 150.
 Vitré, Denis de, pilot under Durell, ii, 60.
 Voisy, Sieur de, ii, 174.
 Voltaire, opinion of, iv, 120.
 Volunteer, Letters from a, i, 13.
 Volunteers for final attack, names of, iii, 22.
 Vondenvelden, M. i, 280.
 Votive Lamp, a, burning since the days of the French regime, iii, 188.
- WADE, Marshal, i, 15.
 Walker, Sir Hovenden, iv, 236.
 Wally, Capt., prisoner at Quebec, ii, 235.
 Walpole, Policy of, i, 4; his conduct of war, i, 7; his estimate of Wolfe, iii, 236; his discription of Townshend, ii, 4.
 Walsh, Colonel Hunt, iii, 175; In Command of Bragg's Regiment, ii, 316; Family of, ii, 316.
 Walsh—Sir Hunt H, A. Bart., of Ballykilcavan, ii, 316.
 Warburton, historian, iii, 325;
 Warde, George, i, 6.
 Washington, George, signs capitulation, i, 150.
 Washington, George, his force on the Youghiogany, ii, 198.
 West, his picture of the death of Wolfe, i, 67; iii, 221; offer to col. Hale, ii, 314.
 Westerham, village of, i, 3.
 Whitmore, governor, ii, 33; Brigadier General, i, 104; letter to Wolfe, vi, 38.
 Wilkins, Dr. said to have been the only surgeon on the field, iii, 214.
 Williamson, Colonel, ordered to destroy the Citadel, ii, 213; iv, 327.
 WOLFE, James, his birth, i, 1; first letter of, i, 5; in active service, i, 7; adjutant at age of 16, i, 8; acts as Brigade Major, i, 14; at old Burlington Street, i, 21; sails for Netherlands, i, 22; in Scotland, i, 25; gazetted major, i, 25; character of, i, 27; regimental minutes and orders of, i, 29.
 Wolfe at Glasgow, devotes certain hours to study, i, 32; his ideas of matrimony, i, 33; makes reference to Miss Lawson, his parents opposed to match, i, 33; his estimate of the citizens of Glasgow, i, 33; on Scotch Preachers, i, 34; prospects of preferment, i, 35; his reference to Miss Hoskins, i, 37; promoted to rank of Lieut.-Col., i, 38; acknowledges obligation to Col. Napier, i, 38; his desire to learn the French language, i, 39; his ambition, i, 40; his escapades in London, i, 42; at Inverness, i, 43; his views of life, i, 44; his desire to study military science, i, 47; visits Dublin, i, 49; his visit to Paris, i, 53; his views of the French, i, 53; at the Court of Versailles, i, 54; presented to the king and La Pompadour, i, 54; fac simile of letter, i, 59; in winter quarters at Dover, i, 59; on military education, i, 65; his estimate of various military works, i, 71; portraits of, i, 66; recommends course of study to a young officer, i, 71; departs for Rochefort, i, 74; lands at Island of Aix, i, 80.
 Wolfe, expresses his views of the requirements of Naval and Military officers, i, 89; indirect reference to Miss Lowther, i, 94; would desire to succeed Vaudreuil if his health permitted, i, 95; pistols of, i, 100; page from order book, i, 104; ordered to take possession of Light house Battery, i, 114; a mortar in one pocket,