Woman's Realm---the Household, Fashions and Society

Tickets for the Rose Ball on Shrove Tuesday can be obtained from the members of the executive of the I. O. D. E. Early application for tickets must be made, as the number is strictly limited and they are going very quickly.

Mrs. A. Gooderham Lady Mackenzie Mrs. J. George Mrs. E.F.B. Johns'n Mrs. Fetherstoneh'h Mrs. Bruce, Miss Chaplin Mrs. H. Burns Mrs. Chaplin Mrs. H. Burns Mrs. C. Brown Mrs. E. Raynalds Mrs. McGillivray Mrs. W. R. Riddell Mrs. A. Garrett Mrs. R. S. Wilson Mrs. A. Garrett Mrs. R. Gooderham Mrs. T. J. Clarke Mrs. C. Mason Mrs. J. A. Ross Mrs. R. Rennie Miss C. Boulton, also the regents of the chapters.

The officers and members of the St. Andrew's College Cadet Corps have issued invitations to an at home on Friday evening, Jan. 31. at 8.30.

Mrs. John Greer of Huron street gave a delightful dance at the Metropolitan Assembly Rooms last night in honor of her daughter, Gwendolyn, who was looking extremely pretty in her frock of soft white liberty satin with imported tunic of crystal embroidery outlined with rhinestones, the train caught with a bow of the same stones. She carried an armful of lovely flowers and her other bouquets were arranged nearby. The hostess wore a lovely gown of parma violet panne trimmed with French beaded net and rhinestones, a train of ninon in the same shade falling from the shoulders. Her bouquet was of orchids and lilies, and she also wore diamond ornaments. Miss Ruth Buil (Oshawa), a guest of the hostess, was in palest pink satin veiled with crystal and pale green and carried lilies and violets.

Dr. Branston Willmott and Dr. Wal-ter Willmott are in Pittsburg to at-tend the annual meeting of the Insti-tute of Dental Pedagogics.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Parker are giving a dinner dance at the Lambton Golf and Country Club this evening.

The formal opening of the Lilian Massey Laboratory of Household Science, at the corner of Queen's Park and Bloor street, will take place today. President and Mrs. Falconer, Sir Edmund and Lady Walker, Mrs. Massey Troble, Miss Laird and Miss Benson will receive. Several addresses will be given, one of those to speak being Miss Ravenhill who was instrumental in introducing household science into King's College in England, and who has recently been engaged in work connected with the Women's Institutes in Canada.

gold, showing distinct spots in each color.

(Miss Mortel Parke), 11 Empress crescent, post-nuptial, on Friday, from 4 to 6 and from 8 to 10 p.m. Mrs. W. A. Denton, 68 Lonsdale road, on Wednesday, Mrs. James Dodgson Shield (Miss Bessie Corbett, Orillia) for the first time since her marriage, on Friday, from 4 to 6, at 78 Hampton Court, Avenue road. Mrs. E. H. Harcourt, 548 Palmerston boulevard, on Wednesday, and Miss Agnes Brown with her. Mrs. Wilton Marks (nee Pearl Hoar), for

Mrs. George Irving has issued invita-ions to a tea on Wednesday.

and Miss Agnes Brown with her. Mrs. Wilton Marks (nee Pearl Hoar), for the first time since her marriage, at 528 Lansdowne avenue, on Thursday, from 4 to 6. Mrs. Frederic Nicolai

Miss Lawler and Miss Gertrude Lawler. 435 Jarvis street, are giving a teathis afternoon.

The third annual meeting of the Georgina House Association will be held at 106 Beverley street at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. (Dr.) Edmund E. King and the Misses King will not receive on Thursday, Jan. 30, but on for the last time.

Mr. J. H. Tyrrell has returned to Tor-

Receptions Today.

Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston, 119 St. George street. Mrs. A. D. Langmuir and M'ss Dorothy Langmuir, North street. Mrs. Alexander Laird, Cluny avenue. Mrs. R. S. Williams ir., and not again till March. Mrs. Ernest McConkey, 277 Russell Hall Drive, last time, and Mrs. George S. McConkey with her. Mrs. Arthur Van Nostrand and Miss Van-Nostrand, York Mills, last time. Mrs. Wm. J. Moodey, new house, 124 Glen road. Mrs. Percy G. Cherry (nee Mac-Kinnon), 620 Euclid avenue. Mrs. R. J. Christie, Queen's Park. Mrs. Sherman Sutton, the Alexandra. Mrs. D. O. Roblin, 325 Palmerston boulevard, on Thursday and not again. Mrs. and the Misses Fitzgerald, 12 Harbord street, and not again.

Receptions.

Owing to illness, Mrs. C. M. T. Brocklebank (see Burns) will not hold her post-nuptial today. Mrs. Marshall P.
Stanburyi (nee White). post-nuptial, on Friday, with her mother, at 121 Spadina road. Mrs. W. K. Pearce and Mrs.
Helen Pearce, 140 Bedford Toad, on Friday. Mrs. Robert Carr Harris, postnuptial, with her mother, Mrs. Morrison. 7 Walmer road, on Friday. Mrs.
G. F. Allen, 2 Monroe Park, net today.
Mrs. James R. Dunn, 24 Howland avenue, Friday, and not again. Mrs. Clifford M. Spathing and Miss Wilcox, 30
Bain avenue, Wednesday, and afterwards on first Wednesday, Mrs. Ferguson, 264 College street, not till second Receptions. wards on first Wednesday. Mrs. Ferguson, 264 College street, not till second and fourth Tuesday in February. Miss Chaplin, 7 Spadina Gardens, on Friday and not again till March. Mrs. Harold Graham Meir, 6 Ferndale avenue, on Thursday for the last time. Mrs. Wallace Barrett, not today. Mrs. Chas. W. Power, 155 Sunnyside avenue, on Wednesday, and her sister, Mrs. Gardentek Chapter with her Mrs. Frederick Chapter with her Mrs. Frederick Chapter and the control of the co Wednesday, and her sister, Mrs. Gardhouse; with her. Mrs. Fredetick C. Mair (Miss Margaret Armitage) for the first time since her marriage, on Wednesday, Feb. 5, at Howland Apartments, suite B. corner Howland and Bloor. Mrs. Herbert Begg, on Friday, for the first time, at 121 Admiral road, and not again. Mrs. Hedley V. Short

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY Disappointment in some project wil be yours and some journey or change will be unsuccessful. From these experiences will spring an idea which you will greatly value and which will later lead to good-fortune.

Those born today will have talents which, with development, will make them of great value as inventors and Untrained they will lead restless, wandering lives, unconscious at least of preventing a woman from of their powers, but dissatisfied with becoming fussy. Catch her at it when a little commonsense, a great of understanding of human a little comi RESCUED BOY FROM CISTERN. nature, and a big desire to mother hese forlorn or wayward little ones.

GALT, Jan. 27.—(Special,)—A six-ear-old boy named Saunders fell into an unguarded deep cistern unnoticed by the family, and would have been drowned but for the heroic act of 193, 195, 197 Yonge street, keeps up a drowned but for the heroic act of 193, 195, 197 Yonge street, keeps up a George B. Klein, a passer-by, who, remarkable variety of records for the hearing the splash, investigated, Victrola—new editions to their selection being made constantly. Phone and managed at great risk to rescue tion being made constantly. Phone the drowning boy as he was going them, Main 6587, when wanting anything in this way

KATHERINE LESUES

greater bane

than fussiness?

sarily

sures, their children, their husbands, the race.

relatives. They fuss about things that have absolutely no connection with themselves. They are restless in their movements. There s a certain ostentation in all that they placid and peaceable persons. They ion't know how to look at a thing or a circumstance calmly and largely.

They fix upon some small and insigdificant incident and harp upon it with maddening iteration and insistence.

They spoil all the sweet days of their wn lives and make life a desert and waste for all with whom they come n touch. In short, there is no disipline so hard to endure, so severe, s being obliged to live with a fussy voman. And the dreadful thing is hat there seems to be no way of curng the fussy woman of her fussiness.

the must be endured!-yet, when one omes to think it over, there is a way

They excite nerves in the most

HOMEBUCHAT

THE BANE OF FUSSINESS

Fussiness! The ing. Show her the error into which word conjures up she is falling. Use the utmost per visions of women suasion. Teach her by example—there who excite them are so many! Show her the way of selves unneces- the fussy woman and persuade her no fies, who have Make her look at annoying trifles and eyes rather for petty details in their relation to large; the part then for things. Make her face trying situ he whole-who mistake the part for ations without petulance and without he whole. To such women abundance excitement. Teach her the value of of petty detail in all things is essen-ial. They dress their persons fus-beauty of simplicity in all things, and sily, their houses are monuments of the surpassing beauty of self-contro ussiness, their behaviour is fussiness The mother who does this for he tself. They fuss about themselves, daughter is one who accomplishes their houses, their duties, their pleas great work and confers a boon upon about tri- to follow that lamentable example

-they are easily discernable-of be ginning to fuss. Put her into train

"MERRY COUNTESS" AND GRAND OPERA DELIGHTED AUDIENCES

Sheehan Opera Company.

"Il Trovatore" is perhaps, next to "Faust" the most popular of the old standard operas, and last night's performance at the Princess by the Sheehan English Opera Company attracted an audience that filled the house, with the exception of the stalls immediately close to the orchestra. The frequent applause testified to the enjoyment of Verdi's charming music and both solosits and chordsters acquitted themselves with credit. The fact that the opera was sung in English added largely to the enjoyment of the performance, the exploded superstition that operas should be sung in a foreign tongue doing more to keep people away from the performances than any other cause. In Germany all operas must be sung in German. It is a pity that English-speaking people have not a similar respect for their own tongue. The orchestra indicated its calibre by the dasteful rendering of the short overture and thruout the evening. The honors were very evenly divided among the soloists, and encores were refused in several instances, the most insistent, however, being for the "Miserere." Alma Stetzler as Azucena had an especially heavy part, and her singing was most artistic and sympathetic. Gladys Caldwell sang the part of Lenora, and in the great trio in the second scene she made an instant impression. This number was given with fine spirit. In the gipsy camp scene the anvil chotus was not quite so stirring as usual, but the male chorus is a good body of voices, resonant and powerful, and the music of the act received much applause. The convent scene in the third act was prettily managed, and also elicited much applause. In the second scene of act four, Joseph F. Sheehan as Manrico stirred the audience by his fine and spirited singing. His tenor is of robust but mellow quality, and he sings with distinction and taste. Louis La Valle was the Count di Luna of the cast, and his voice, except for a marked themolo, is a powerful and resonant and highly attractive bartone. Has life any she is young-in her earliest girlhood -when she shows the first symptom:

was the Count di Luna of the cast, and his voice, except for a marked themolo, is a powenful and resonant and highly attractive baritone. Francis J. Bayle was Fernando, Wm. J. Jorgensen, Luiz, and Louise Hoerger, Inez. The opera will be repeated on Friday. Tondght and Saturday evening Offenbach's "Love Tales of Hoffman" will be given. The staging of the operas is somewhat elaborate, leading to considerable waits that the result was very charming. Al. H. Wilson at the Grand Al. H. Wilson, the German dialect omedian, is the central character in the comedian, is the central character in the comedy, with songs, "It Happened in Potsdam," at the Grand this week, and the audience which greeted him at the opening performance testified to the popularity of the star. In the character of "Metz" Mr. Wilson is content to fall in love in the good old-fashioned way, to sing the songs that have a touch of sentiment, and to dispense the kind of comedy that always has brought and always will bring laughter to the man who thinks that his mission in life is never to crack a smile.

that his mission in life is never to crack a smile.

As "Metz von Klatz," Mr. Wilson gives a delightful impersonation of an eccentric German, who returns to his native City of Potsdam with the intention of marrying a former sweetheart, only to learn that during his absence she has married a Russian count. With the aid of an American cousin, the countess endeavors to recover a foolish letter written to Metz some three years before her marriage. It is this letter which is responsible for the many amusing situations in the piece, which lend additional interest to an otherwise interesting performance. Metz becomes interested in a sister of his former sweetheart, but is opposed by the countess, who does not favor him for a brother-in-law. To gain her consent, Metz threatens to acquaint the count with the contents of the love letter unless she agrees to withdraw her opposition, at the same time promising that if he fails to win her sister's love he will burn the letter and leave Potsdam forever. At this period the cousin, Phoebe Fairfax, plots to recover the letter by

Paris

NUMBER OF STATE OF THE CONTROL OF STATE OF THE

At the Gayety.

The most critical burlesque patron could not have found fault with the show staged at the Gayety Theatre last night. Gus Fay and his supporting company in "One Night in Paris" took the city by storm. There was also Mile, Millie Fontaine, who balanced Gus—he needed balancing, weight just 250 lbs.—and in this role appeared Clara Douglas Rackett. It is not an exaggeration to state that Clara Rackett is the queen of burlesque. William Armstrong was an actor, and a good one at that, without him the show would be rather incomplete. Lee Hickman, John Oishane, B. Wilson, proved to be clever artists of exceptional ability. Margaret La Voun, Mae Butler, Ada Lum and Blanche Roberts formed a strong part of the cast. Frank Richards appeared in the second act as Dr. Cutlet and won the greatest praise. There were several fine dancing numbers.

John Drew Coming.

Charles Frohman will present John Drew in "The Perplexed Husband," by Alfred Sutro, at the Princess Theatre next week.

This four-act comedy, which attained remarkable success in London and was a scurce of delight when given recently by Mr. Drew and his fine company at the Empire Theatre, New York, comes with the original cast and charming production. It is the wost delightful vehicle this eminent actor has had for many seasons.

The supporting company includes Mary Boland, Margaret Watson, Nina Sevening, Hubert Druce and others. The seat sale will open Thursday morning. John Drew Coming.

One of the glories of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which is to be heard for the first time in eight years at Massey Hall tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, is its wood-wind choir, which by good judges is regarded as the best in the world. Among its members are Georges Longy, who came to the orchestra in 1893, from Paris, where he was regarded as the finest ovoe the Conservatoire had ever produced. Then there is Maquarre, first flute and also a Conservatoire prize-winner; Georges Grisez, first clarinet, son of Leon Grisez, the greatest clarinet player France ever produced. Peter Sadony, first bassoon, has been with the orchestra since 1905, coming from the 'famous Ourzenich Orchestra, where he was regarded as the finest bassoon in Germany. In short the Boston Symphony is an organization of virtuosi, rarely heard outside the largest European centres of culture. Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Harry Lauder Tonight. There will be a parade from the Union

Columbia Grafonolas Hear the new February

Records. All the latest opera selections. Everything in Grafonolas and supplies. Try us, you won't be disappointed. The up-to-date Columbia House.

9 Queen St. East R. W. Burnett Open Evenings

LIPTON

He's the man that T in Toronto

LIPTON'S TEA

the franchise bill is likely to fead to FRIENDS HONORED

of the home rule bill.

In the meantime police in great numbers, mounted and afoot, were having difficulties outside the buildings to keep the vast crowds in check, while reserve forces stationed in courtyards in the vicinity of parliament, were held in readiness to check disorders of a more serious nature. The suffragettes held heated meet-

The suffragettes held heated meetings tonight. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst and other leaders denounced both the enemies and the supporters of the suffragettes in the cabinet for their treachery. They declared an end of the truce, which the women had observed while awaiting parliament's action on the bill.

War on Property. "Deeds not words," was the motto displayed above the platform where Mrs. Pankhurst spoke. She asserted that the women would consider human life sacred, but would do as much damage to property as possible.

Some of her lieutenants failed to agree with her policy. Miss Annie Kenny, one of the most prominent of the militants, advocated the smashing of both property and heads. The vate member's bill next session.

Several speakers said that the women had prepared a plan of action which for the present was secret, but which would surprise the world. Several women were arrested to-night, some of whom declined to give their names. One, believed to be Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, was captured in St. Stephen's Hall, leading to the house of commons, where she was making a determined attack on a large paint.

Women Arrested.

The police dispersed a crowd in Trafalgar square, where a man and wo. The speakers, who resisted the were arrested. The famous militant, Mrs. Despard, was taken to the police station with six others. The big crowds which poured toward Westminster this afternoon and night were composed mostly of men, who hoped composed mostly of men, who noped to see an outbreak of the militant suf-fragettes. The police kept them mov-ing and drove them down the side streets. Everybody was good-natured and there was much sing and cheer-

Practically the whole police force will be on duty all night. Strong guards are stationed at all the public buildings, and a special watch is being kept on postoffices and letter boxes.

Mrs. Pankhurst Bitter. Mrs. Parkhurst's denunciation of the government was fiery and bitter.

"The farce of the referm bill is played out," she said. "Either those who framed the bill were ignorant of parliamentary procedure, and they were framed the bill were ignorant of parliamentary procedure, and they were unfit to occupy positions of responsibillity, or they were scoundrels of the worst sort. It has been a mock battle, arranged. Mr. Harcourt and Mr.
Lloyd George were seen going arm in arm into a music hall Saturday. Can you imagine them saying: 'Well, now that we have dished the women, let us forget about it and go and see the cinematograph'?"

The women had lost their torobian.

in using all the methods employed in Will Defy Laws.

Mrs. Despard, at another meeting, HOGS

LOWE

But Catt to Red

selves."
Mrs. Drummond, president of the Women's Social and Political Union has written to Chancellor Lloy as written to Chancellor deorge, asking him to receive another deputation tomorrow. One of the suf-tragettes' demands is that Mr. Lloyd George and Sir Edward Grey supported the suffragist cause, short resign office.

Dropped for Session. The government appears to have decided to drop the question of franchise reform altogether for the present session. Harold Trevor Baker's plural voting bill, which was expected to replace the franchise bill, requires too extensive amendment, according to the government view, to be undertaken in the short time re-maining in the present session. Hence the whole question will be postponed until the session of parliament be-ginning probably March 6, when the friends of woman suffrage will be invited by the government to frame a bill in such a manner as to secure the support of all sections.

Mrs. Despard was liberated tonight on bail.

GEO. CLARE. M. P.

was a gala night in Preston. At the opera house supporters of George A. Clare, M.P., from all sections of South Waterloo gathered to honor their representative in the Dominion Parliament. Mr. Clare was tendered an address and presentation. Among the speakers were: Senator Pope and Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior.

The affair was an outstanding one in the appair of South Waterlees.

in the annals of South Waterloo, and was fully enjoyed. A special car carried the Galt guests, and the Burns Club Pipe Band accompanied the Galt party. Mr. Clare modestly accepted congratulations on his recent honor.

Fast Train Service to Montreal Via Grand Trunk Railway. This line offers every feature pertaining to comfortable travel; it is the only double track route and makes the fastest time. Three fast trains leave Toronto daily at 9.00 a.m., 8.80 p.m. and 10.45 p.m. The 9.00 a.m. train carries modern first-class coaches, Parlor-Library car and Dining car to Montreal, also Pullman sleeping car to Boston. The 8.30 p.m. and 10.45 p.m. trains carry modern first-class coaches and electric-lightfirst-class coaches and electric-light-ed Pullman sleeping cars to Montreal. Through Pullman sleeper is operated to Ottawa, leaving Toronto 10.45 p.m. daily. Berth reservations and full in-formation at city ticket office, north-west corner King and Yonge streets. Phone Main 4209.

Women's Ailments Caused By Neglect

Proper Treatment Will Ouickly Bring Back Robust Health

Women are on the whole more sicky than men. One reason is that their system is more complicated; another and more important reason is they put off measures of relief too long. At the beginning, constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of women's allments. The blood becomes weakened and polluted-the nerves suffer and a run-down condition takes root.

cinematograph'?"

The women had lost their touching faith in politicians and were likely to lose their faith in the average man, she continued, and short of taking lives, the suffragettes were warranted seek blood-puriner, the finest complexion renewer, the most certain regulating medicine known. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers, 25c per box, five for $1.00 postpaid. The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada,

MONT
the cabi
the fact and price
was son porters made for oats to 3d his have be ment.
Very qui local de for butt
fairly ac
Corn
Oats
to 42c;
feed, 41
No. 3 io
886.
Barley
malting.
Bucav
Flour
firsts, $
ers. $4.
stra.ght
$2.30 to kolled
196., $2.
Milite
dlings.
Hay$14.50.
Chees
casterin
Butte
29%c. s
Eggs
to 28c;
Nock,
Potat
Dress
$12.75;
$45 to 45
45 to 45
45 to 45
45 to 45
46 to 45
47
47
48 to 45
48 t

MONTE