

[Interpretation] documents into English and French and then to the Commission and have answered the questions most intelligently. Indeed, I thank you very, very deeply, gentlemen.

This Commission is adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 1, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 2, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

It is the duty of the Commission to report to the Government of Canada and to the Government of British Columbia. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

When we have finished our report, we will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

* 1924

M. Gauthier: I have a question to ask of the Commission. It is whether it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario.

In answer to the question, I would say that it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario.

Mr. Gauthier: Your question, I think, is whether it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

The Chairman: I think that the Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

[Text] have presented very thoughtfully and conscientiously to the Commission and have answered the questions most intelligently. Indeed, I thank you very, very deeply, gentlemen.

This Commission is adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 1, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 2, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Gauthier: I have a question to ask of the Commission. It is whether it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

When we have finished our report, we will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

M. Gauthier: I have a question to ask of the Commission. It is whether it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario.

In answer to the question, I would say that it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario.

Mr. Gauthier: Your question, I think, is whether it is possible to obtain a loan from the Government of Canada to purchase wheat for the purpose of feeding the population of the Province of Ontario. The Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.

The Chairman: I think that the Commission will be adjourned until the afternoon of Monday, April 3, in Kelowna, British Columbia at eight o'clock in the evening.