PRICES WERE FIRM ON FRUIT MARKET

Quantity Not So Large and Good Demand Held Figures Up.

PLUMS SELLING BETTER

Chief Reason Was Because of More Choice Shipments.

There was not as large a quantity of fruit on the market yesterday as there has been, and as the Friday trade is large, the prices were slightly firmer.

There were a few small shipments of traspberries sent in, which sold at 10c to 13c per box; two cases of very good ones being shipped by James Pengilley of Clarkson to Jos. Bamford & Sons, realizing the highest price.

The bulk of the thimbleberries sold at 8c to 10c per box, some inferior quality 8c to 10c per box, some inferior quality going as low as 5c per box.

Blueberries were generally of choice quality, selling at $1 to $1.50 per 11-quart Black currants also sold at the same Black currants also sold at the same prices—the choice ones bringing $1.50.

Plums brought a better price than they have been going at, chiefly because they were a better quality, the poorer quality 11-quart flats selling at 20c to 30c, the better ones at 40c to 50c; and the good quality 11-quart lenos selling at 60c to 75c per basket.

Peaches varied greatly in price the

CLOSING WAS STRONG IN MONTREAL MARKET

Earlier Losses in Group of Specialties Were Largely Overcome.

MONTREAL, Aug. 20 .- After open ing with overnight losses running from large-sized fractions to about points and falling about a point lower veloped a rallying tendency later on and by noon initial declines had been substantially reduced. In the afternoon the market was quiet and steady, with some further improvement in one or two issues. The net result of the day's movement was to leave the more morning, but falling back to 82 in the afternoon and closing at the low. In Bridge, Iron and Scotia the net losses in each case were exactly one point. Steel closed at 27 1-2. Car showed a loss of 1 1-2 at 100 1-2.

ANOTHER DECREASE

quality 11-quart lenos selling at 60c to, 75c per basket.

Peaches varied greatly in price, the half baskets selling at 12½c to 35c, and the 11-quarts at 20c to 75c, according to quality. William Wallace Armstrong of Queenston sent in some choice early Carmons to Clemes Bros., splendidly packed in boxes, containing two dozen, which sold at 80c per box.

Pears were a better quality than they have been, 11-quart flats sellin at 40c, and lenos at 50c. Harper Secord, St. Catharines, sent in some choice ones in extra well-dilled leno baskets to Belknap & Son, also green plums and tomatoes. R.

A. Westbrook of Clarkson also sent in large ones to McWilliam & Everist in 11-quart flats.

Tomatoes came in in large quantities and the the wholesalers tried to get a better price for them it was not a success, as there were not many sold at 25c, the prices varying from 20c down to 9c per 11-quart basket.

Oucumbers were almost unsalable, the prices ranging from 10c to 20c per 11-quart basket, and the bulk going below 15c.

Bigs plants are ingreasing in quantity quart basket, and the bulk going below

15c.

Bus plants are increasing in quantity and decreasing in price, the 11-quart basket, an odd one bringing 75c.

Much better quality apples are now being shipped in, selling at 25c to 50c per 11-quart basket, and $3 per bbl. George Horne of Clarkson shipped in some fine Duchess 11-quart baskets to Clemes Bros.

Charles S. Simpson had a car of Oklahoma peaches, selling at $2.75 per bushel. and two cars of pears, selling at $2.75 per bushel.

H. Peters had a car of peaches, selling at $2.75 per bushel.
