TWO HOUSES BURNED IN HAMPSTEAD PARK

Exploding Lamp Caused Fire Which Wiped Out Dwellings.

Two houses were totally destroyed b a fire which broke out at 10 o'clock last night in the residence of William Whitehouse, Hawthorne road, Hampstead Park, Fairbank, and damage to the extent of $2200 was caused. Mr/ Whitehouse had gone to the rear of the lot, leaving a coal oil lamp burning on the table in the parlor, and returning. 10 minutes later found the place in flames. It is thought that the draught thru the open window caused the lamp to explode. Despite the efforts of a bucket brigade, which was immediately formed, the flames spread to the adjoining property occupied by Thomas Sharp, and in a short time both places were completely gutted. Several sections of the Toronto fire brigade were soon on the scene, but—were handicapped by the lack of water, and they devoted their efforts to saving the adjoining properties, which included the Watson lumber yards.

Yards.
The house occupied by William White-The house occupied by William White-house was a two-sto-ey frame structure valued at $800. Mr. Whitehouse had the misfortune four weeks ago to lose his wife and child. The place is insured to the amount of $250.

Sharp, who carries on a dairy business, estimated his loss at $1200. His loss is partly covered by insurance. loss is partly covered by insurance

EARLSCOURT PEOPLE STILL ARE WONDERING

They Want Action on the Proposal to Build a Public Lavatory.

Residents in the Earlscourt district are still wondering when a public lavatory is to be installed. For a considerable time the matter has formed a topic of discussion at the various ratepayers' meetings, and they are tired of the delay. The site proposed by the British Imperial Association is at the corner of St. Clair and Duf-ferin avenue, while the council have suggested a site at the head of Lansdowne avenue. The residents are of the opinon that the former site is more advisable, but the matter has been left in abeyance so long that they would be quite satisfied to see the convenience place 1 at Lansdowne
