

WHO ARE DEPENDENTS?

Dependents are defined by the Act as being members of the workman's family who are wholly or in part dependent on his earnings, at the time of his death, or who have been but for the injury, dependent on him. Such as wife, or husband, father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, step-father, step-mother, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, step-son, step-daughter, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, adopted child, foster parent or illegitimate child.

AMOUNT DEPENDENTS ARE ENTITLED TO.

In Case of Death—

(1) Where the dependents are wholly dependent such as a wife, minor children, aged parents and such like, the sum of $1,500.00.

(2) Where the dependent is only partly dependent on the earnings of the dead workman, such amount as shall be agreed upon by parties, not exceeding $1,500.00, or whatever amount can be settled by arbitration, but not more than $1,500.

(3) Where there are no dependents, the reasonable cost of medical attendance and burial expenses, not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(4) Where death results from injuries, the compensation shall be paid into court and paid out as the court directs.

In Case of Partial or Total Disablement—

Fifty per cent. of the average earnings not exceeding ten dollars per week, for a journeyman or an adult workman, or six dollars per week for an apprentice.

If, however, the employer pays any payments, allowances or benefit during the time