

Chief Cook.

The Chief Cook will have the immediate direction of the Kitchen Department, and of the Assistants therein, as far as concerns the performance of their duties;—and will prepare the daily Bill of Fare, with the concurrence of the Steward, keeping all orders for the issue of the Kitchen Supplies for daily comparison with the Dinner Bills, it being understood that no such supplies shall be issued without an order.

Hall Porter.

He will enter in his book once a day the name of every Member coming into the Club House.

Strangers calling to see Members will be shown by him into the Reception Room, and intimation of their arrival immediately sent by him to the Member inquired for, if in the house.

If a letter for an absent Member be applied for by another Member, who may wish to forward it, the latter will be required to pay the postage, (if any,) and to sign an acknowledgment in the Porter's Book of his having received the letter, in case of any future question.

He will make out orders for the issue of supplies from the Kitchen, and make himself generally useful in the Establishment in such ways as the Manager or Steward may require.

Waiters.

The Waiters, and all other servants in the Establishment, will be subject to the order of the Secretary, and under him to the Heads of the different departments, and will perform such duties as he or they may prescribe.

Yardman.

The Yardman will light the Fires, saw and cleave Firewood, convey Fuel and Water at proper times to the various departments, clean knives, keep the Footway in front and Yard in rear of the House constantly clean, and perform all such other duties as the Secretary or Steward may from time to time direct.

General Servants' Regulations.

No officer or servant will receive, under penalty of immediate dismissal, any present whatever from the Members or Tradesmen of the Club: and any Tradesman detected in giving such will be forthwith discontinued, and never dealt with again.
