

penned will have been fully attained ; for the writer believes that your Grace will then hold communication upon this subject with many public men who are as profoundly impressed with a sense of the necessity for a Union of the Colonies as he himself can be, and who can much more forcibly and convincingly present the arguments which go to prove that necessity.

P. S. HAMILTON.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, July 28th, 1860.