

LETTER V.

Auxiliary misstatements—A qualified certificate of character by a colleague—Two “ifs” for the half-breeds—The man who told the malcontents to go on, “exonerated,” and Mr. McDougall declared to be the chief criminal!—The “surveys” and who suggested them—Col. Dennis’ instructions—Withholding information—A new view of official responsibility—Sir Francis on the “cause of the Rebellion”—A false charge answered by 350 breech-loaders—What then?—A question for Mr. Howe to answer—Difference of reasoning in “Committee of Council,” and in a “Review.” Page 35—39.

LETTER VI.

The policy of Canadian Government reviewed under five heads—Endorsing Mr. Howe, endorses his mischievous acts—Provoking rebellion—A leaf of history—Inter-colonial Railway route and its set-off—Two millions of money and what was got for it—A harmonious policy to abandon the North-West—The “quiet possession” theory—A diplomatic coup—An expensive promenade and a bugle blast at the end of it—“Stay where you are”—Bishop Tache’s “established authorities”—A special messenger; “fluent,” experienced, and a good drill—What he said and what he did—what the Government Ambassador might have said, but did not—The Manitoulin story—facit per alium etc.—The storm cloud in the sky. Page 40—45.

LETTER VII.

The Manitoba Bill—its history, character, object—Lord Granville’s condition precedent—The “freely elected council” and the Delegates—Sir John’s illness, and what followed—Attempt to exclude Portage la prairie—The 1,400,000 acre reserve—Dis-honest garbling of Act by pamphleteer.—Quebec Mercury praises Mr. Langevin for keeping out Ontario settlers, and giving Quebec a “staunch western ally” in the North-West—Felony eligibility—Sectarian schools imposed on the new Province against the wish of Riel’s convention—1869 and 1870, a contrast—The maxim “don’t give lettuce if thistles will answer” reversed—Jesuit allies, what they have done for the Pope, and what they will do for the Government of Canada—The chevalier of St. Gregory at Sault Ste. Marie—The Expedition—why it was sent, and attempt to recall it—Riel at Stone Fort—Authority not to take him!—Instructive correspondence—Governor’s hands tied as well as Col. Wolesley’s—Constitutional questions for Parliament, etc. Page 45—53.

LETTER VIII.

Mr. Archibald’s appointment—A blow at Confederation—The American method of putting down rebellion—treating with rebels in arms—A lesson to savages—$25,000 as a ransom by the Bishop’s “best friend”—Vicar General Thibault’s sentence of ostracism confirmed by Government—Unconstitutional intermeddling with local affairs of new Province—Who are the advisers?—The way loyalty is rewarded and treason punished in the North-West—Dangerous delays—English lawyers dismissed and French lawyers appointed—No surveys and no lands offered to settlers—A check to “New Nationality,” but only temporary—Conclusion. Page 54—59.

APPENDIX :

- A.—Last official letter from Mr. McDougall to Mr. Howe.
- B.—Two letters, Bishop Tache to President Riel.
- C.—Report by Major Wallace of his interview with Col. De Salaberry, after the latter had passed Mr. McDougall on the Plains.
- E.—Letter of Sergeant Mulligan, a loyal pensioner, detailing his treatment by Governor Archibald.