

Dup.
EDUCATIONAL TRACTS FOR THE TIMES.

No. II.

The Proposed Plan of College Confederation.

BY THE

REV. A. SUTHERLAND, D.D.

"We are unable to see that any important corresponding advantage is likely to be derived from so serious a step as is implied in reducing the ancient Universities of Scotland from the position of Universities, and converting them into Colleges of a new National University."—REPORT OF ROYAL COMMISSION.

Toronto:

PRINTED FOR THE AUTHOR.

1885.