

I N D E X.

ing, i. 13. For
and life in America,
the colonies, and
ing the paper cur-
n great discontents
posed in America
ment to be gress, 45. Act for ied by an act de-
ate for America in
e more comfortable
Act for leaving
colonial pamphlets
eignty on the disor-
D. continues all the
et for exporting tea
w Englanders, ibid.
Act for changing
o. Act for the bet-
or the settlement of
disaffected colonies
ain, 137. Makes a
Not accepted, 139.
fter commencement
against coercive mean, 178. Measures
American petition
2. Conciliatory bill
183. Act for pro-
ibid. Conciliatory
184. By the duke
ebates on the procla-
Bill for securing
Motion by lord Cha-
e war, 303. Manly
respecting the public
ith America ii. 3.
wn, ii. 207.
Maclean, and success-
i. 10. Assembly of,
elphia.
ongress to his majesty,
d), sent with a detach-ncord, near Bolton, i.
130.

130. Annoyed by the Americans, ibid. Acquires a high character as an officer, 135. Commands a body at Long Island, 219. Carries the advanced posts of the enemy's camp, 245.
Pierfon, major, defends St. Helier's, capital of the island of Jersey, against the French, ii. 306. Is killed, 307.
Pitcairne, major, killed at Bunker's Hill, i. 143. His character, 144.
Pitt, William (earl of Chatham), averse to the system respecting America proposed by government, i. 29. His motion for an address to the throne for peace, 303.
Pigott, major-general, his successful defence of Rhode Island,
ii. 38.
Prescot, general, carried off by the Americans, i. 319.
Prevost, general, defeats the Americans, ii. 122. Unsuccessful attempt of, against Charlestown, 126. Departs for Savannah, 129. Besieged there by the Americans and French, 140.
His lines attacked, 144. Repulses the enemy with great loss, 146.
Purnam, general, commands a detachment from Connecticut, i.
136. Account of, ibid. Makes good his retreat from New York with the American army, 233.

Q.

Quintin's Bridge, action at, i. 410.

R.

Rawdon, lord, (earl of Moira), commands a division of the forces at the battle near Caniden, ii. 232. Commendation of his vigour and enterprise, ibid. On the sickness of lord Cornwallis takes the command of the southern army, 248. Difficult march of, in South Carolina, ibid. Hardships encountered by the troops, 249. Commands the troops in South Carolina, whither Greene also marches, 393. Attacks the camp of general Greene at Hobkirk's Hill, 396. Defeats Greene, ibid. Masterly generalship of, 398. Returns to Europe, 418.
Red Bank, unsuccessful attack on by the English forces, i.
337.
Rhode Island, insurrection in, i. 125. Attempt upon by Clinton and Parker, 240. Conquered, ibid. A particular account of the progress and issue of the attempt of the Americans on,
ii. 40.
Rivers, on the eastern side of North America, navigable to near their