Victor Herbert and Harry B. Smith's charming comic opera, "The Wizard of the Nile," has captured Vienna, according to cable advices from the Austrian capital. It was produced there Saturday, Sept. 26th, and scored an immediate success. Inasmuch as this is the first instance on record of an American comic opera being produced in the German speaking countries, the honor is no small one. When it is further remembered that Vienna is the recognized home of comic opera, and the scene of the Strauss and Millocker triumphs, the success of "The Wizard of the Nile" is a sincere tribute to the opera's merits.

THE SCORCHER.

"Why do they call a fast bicycle rider a scorcher, papa?"

"Because he goes a hot pace, makes pedestrians boiling mad, warms up the police and gets roasted in court. The scorcher thinks it a burning shame."

Who was the first wheelman?—Father Time. From the beginning he has gone on bicycles.
