

Sydenham, ctd.

Moderates, 113, 141, 298;
Debt to, of Canada, 122-5, 132, 133; Despatches of,
325; Episodes and course of his rule, 78 et seq.;
the Fall of the Family Compact, 63; Practice of, Bagot's action contrasted with, 149; Relations with French Canadians, 58, 141, 162; Religious distribution of members of his Council (1841), 47; Responsible Government practically granted by, 107, 228-9, his own views as worded by Harrison, 119-20, Metcalfe on, 164-5; and Russell's system, 260; Settlement by, of Clergy Reserve Question, 53, 54; Sleigh-journey, record breaking 11-12, 92; Success with the Act of Union, 92 on Baldwin's action in the First Union Parliament, 44-5; on Business in a Colonial Parliament, 65-6;
on the Clergy Reserve question, 53-4; on Early Travel in Canada, 10; on the French Anti-Union movement, 103-4; on Party names, 56, 295

T

TACHÉ, Colonel Sir Étienne Pascal, 195, 307; and Federation, 303
Talbot, Colonel, in Canada, 19

Tariffs, Canadian, and the Home country, 327-8
Taxation, Canadian, Independence in, asserted, 287, 328 Taylor, Sir Henry, Influence of,
at the Colonial Office, 235;
on Russell as Chief Secretary, 236
Teachers, Lack of, in early days, 33-5
Terrebonne, and La Fontaine's election, 117
Thomson, Poulett, see Syden-ham, Lord
Three Rivers, 13
Times, The, and Canadian affairs, 232-3
Toronto, 65; Anglicanism in, 43; Journey to (1839), 10; King's College at, 36;
Population of (1824-46), 13, 24; Social characteristics (circa 1846), 26
Toronto, Bishop in, see Strachan Toronto University, set on foot by Bagot, 36, 136
Tory Party
British, and Colonial aspirations, 217, 247 et seq.;
Separation anticipated by, 278, 279, 329; Views analogous to those of Canadian Tories, 295
Canadian (see also Family Compact), Annexationist views of, 204, 220, Elgin's methods with, 221, 222, 295-6, 334 et seq.
Toryism of the French Canadians, see French Canadians, Political views of Towns, Large and Small, Characteristics of (circa 1846), 25 et seq.