

" 2615l. Every person and officer charged with the duty of enforcing any provision of this section, who neglects to perform the duty imposed upon him shall incur a penalty not exceeding ten dollars for each offence.

" 2615m. The penalties imposed by this section shall be recoverable under the provisions of part XV, of the Criminal Code respecting summary convictions.

" 2615n. No conviction or order made in any matter arising under this section shall be subject to appeal.

" 2615o. Where a person is charged with an offence under this section in respect of a child who is alleged to be within the ages of seven and thirteen and the child appears to the court to be within such ages, the child shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be within such ages unless the contrary is proved.

" 2615p. The Protestant Committee of the Council of Public Instruction may make, amend or repeal regulations for the carrying out of this section.

" 2615q. This section shall only apply to those who are not of the Roman Catholic faith."

2. This act shall come into force on the day of its sanction.