REORGANIZING SYSTEM FOR TEACHER-TRAINING

Resignation of Principal McLellan of Hamilton Normal College is Announced.

In an official statement issued yesterday by the department of education it is formally announced that in the carrying out of the program for the improvement of teachers' qualifications the Normal College at Hamilton is to be abolished.

The principals, Dr. McLellan has resigned and Mr. Thompson, B.A., will become acting principal. Dr. McLellan's subjects on teaching are provided for by lectures on psychology, three times a week during the next and final session, by Dr. Abbott and by Dr. Tracey on science and history of education.

The Hamilton Normal College is to be replaced by a department of pedagogy, with practical and observation teaching provided for by lectures in the university board of governors, following the recommendation of the university commission.

The new system provides after June, 1907, for two grades only of professional training, schools—that for university graduates and those students, who have a senior teacher's standing, to be provided at Toronto, and that for junior teachers standing in the new normal system will provide.

IN THE AFTERNOON COURT. Walter Palmer's Feats With Rifle—A Case of Assault.

The domestic life of Walter Palmer was enquired into by Daniel Lamb, J. P., in yesterday afternoon's police court, due to a complaint preferred by Mrs. Palmer of neglect and abuse.

Palmer's lawyer defended his client's right to entertain ladies in his own home and to receive letters from them, while Palmer vouched the information that "the French (his wife) are the very devil to get along with."

TAUNTED BY GIRLS, JUMPS INTO DEEP WATER, DROWNS

New York, July 16.—Taunted by his girl companions, who said he dare not venture into the water above his head, Samuel Gutten, 20 years old, of Coney Island, who could not swim, plunged into deep water in Gravesend Bay and was drowned in view of many bathers.

WRIT AGAINST UNION. A writ has been issued by the Canada Foundry Co. against local union No. 58, International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and Whiteside, McGinnis and Higgins, its officers, to prevent intimidation, picketing, etc., in connection with the labor troubles at Fort Arthur.

THE FIGHT FOR LOCAL OPTION. There is a good deal of activity just now among temperance people throughout the province. They are looking forward to the submission of local option by laws in a large number of municipalities this year.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS HOAR. Bowmansville, July 16.—(Special.)—The remains of the late Thomas Hoar of this town, who was accidentally killed by an electric car at Willow Brook, Cal., July 9, arrived this morning. The interment took place this afternoon from the family residence to Bowmansville Cemetery, where it was conducted by Rev. John Goodman, Orangeville, assisted by Revs. W. Joffite, T. W. Joffite, H. Emery, D. Cross, D. Cross, (Whitey), and Capt. Lamb of the Salvation Army.

Can King Refuse Us? Ottawa, July 16.—It is expected that an answer may be received from the King to Canada's invitation at any time. It is thought the mention of the invitation in the speech from the throne proroguing parliament will expedite a reply.

BOUGHT REVOLVER TO SCARE

Windsor Man Says He Did Not Intend to Murder Wife. Windsor, July 16.—Christopher Splindeman, who killed his wife on Saturday night, is now more composed, having recovered from his debauch. He says he never intended to kill his wife, and that he bought the revolver to frighten his sons. He and his wife had a good deal of trouble over the title of the cottage in which the wife lived. The deed at first was in the wife's name, but she transferred it to their son, William. Splindeman claims that he believed that they were trying to get possession of the place and then drive him out.
