

The following from a prominent chemist in Edinburgh:

St. Leonards Street, Edinburgh, Dec. 25, 1886.

DEAR SIR:—I have had quite an enormous sale for your medicines, and find that of the many patent medicines I keep, none sell so well or produce such beneficial effects as the Seigel's Syrup, or Shaker Extract of Roots. Where the results are generally good, and in some cases marvelous, it would be invidious to select any particular case as a subject for testimonial. While writing this a gentleman has just come in to inform me that he has derived much benefit from it for Stomach and Liver Complaint, and that he intends keeping it constantly in his house. My sale of it has been in the thousands.

I am, yours most respectfully, JAMES REID.

This man has discovered the secret of our success in business. Because the medicine has "proved of such value to those who have given it a fair trial."

23 Liverpool Road, Ste. e-on-Trent, Jan. 3, 1884.

DEAR SIR:—Respecting Seigel's Syrup, or Shaker Extract of Roots, I have been surprised at the great sale it commands; but when I hear so many speak of its merits, my surprise becomes less, in consequence of its having proved of such value to those who have given it a fair trial. Yours respectfully,

C. F. WILSON.

DISEASES OF THE LIVER.

A person in health does not know he has such a thing as a liver, but when the system gives way to the ravages of disease he is made sensible that he really has a liver. After one has spent a couple of years in India he knows there is a liver, generally to his sorrow, for this organ is the main-spring of the human organization. When the liver becomes disordered and diseased, the person so afflicted is indeed miserable. He suffers with dull pains in the side, bad taste in the mouth, spots before the eyes, flushes of heat, irregularity of the bowels, piles, coated tongue, disordered stomach, heartburn, costiveness, and pain in the head. He frequently has a dry cough, high-colored urine, yellow skin, and dull sleepy sensations, rendering him unfit for business or for employment. The hands and feet are cold, circulation of the blood sluggish; the patient suffers with vertigo, ringing in the ears, loss of appetite, nausea, and sick headache, heartburn, dry, scurvy skin, etc.

Seigel's Syrup, or Shaker Extract of Roots, acts moderately upon the bowels, so as to produce two or three easy passages a day, without any purging or griping. It does not leave constipation, as most of the ordinary blood-purifiers in use do, but produces harmony in every part of the system. The liver is invigorated to secrete healthy bile, and to filter impurities from the blood, by the use of this wonderful regulator and invigorator, and all the disagreeable and painful sensations above mentioned are one by one removed as the blood is cleansed and renewed. The skin loses its sallow appearance, and the bloom of health and beauty takes the place of the haggard sallow hue of disease. A dose of Seigel's Syrup, or Shaker Extract of Roots, taken at night on going to bed, will, in a short time, give evidence of its purifying and cleansing properties by the brilliancy of the eye, the bloom of the complexion, and the vigor of the whole body. A few doses of Seigel's Operating Pills will aid in effecting a cure.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint Cured.

Middle County Harbor, Nova Scotia, April 19, '86.

A. J. WHITE (Limited).

Dear Sirs: Your Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup gives good satisfaction to all who use it. For Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint it never fails. One old man who had suffered for years with both these ailments is to-day a well man.

Yours respectfully,

F. SALSMAN.

RHEUMATISM.

Never before has there existed a remedy as unfailingly successful in rheumatic affections as the Seigel's Syrup, or Shaker Extract of Roots. It lubricates the joints, promotes the secretions of the fluids necessary to remove the stiffness of the muscles, removes hardened deposits in the joints, greases the machinery of Nature, and makes it move easily. One or two bottles of Mother Seigel's Syrup, or Shaker Extract of Roots, will do more than a hog-head of liniments, for it carries out of the circulation the acrid humors in the blood.
