Canada's Greatest Store

Its Own Argument.

One result of the Furniture sale, last month is a re-organization of furniture dealers and a new plan of campaign against this store. Instead of the ordinary competition of business, we're to be treated to the extraordinary spectacle of an appeal to the Legislature, and if perchance they find difficulty in getting a hearing we shall be glad to go to their assistance. This business is its own argument. is under protest by druggists as well as furniture dealers, which means people are coming here past the other stores. It seems that a wizard couldn't keep them away, and the of years, chances are we'll be nearer the millennium than Mr. Mansergh's project involves severwe are now before people accept any dictation al features as to how and where they shall shop. In His re building up an enormous furniture trade, we've considered the thousands who buy in from tion. preference to the few who sell. In putting state new notions into trade we violate no rule of business courtesy, and in enlarging our sphere of usefulness we're doing what others would gladly do if they had the chance. Collingwood, March 9.-Charles Wag-Collingwood, March 9.—Charles Wagner a brakeman on the G.T.R., met with an accident at Newmarket Station to-day. While he was standing on the platform the Nort Bay train passed at a very rapid rate of speed. While it passed the mail clerk threw out a number of bundles of paper, one of which struck Wagner on the back of the head, knocking him senseless. He was brought to his home here on the mixed train. Dr. Stephen, G. T. R. physiciam who is attending him, expects he will be able to be out in a week or ten days.

H. H. HOLMES HEARS HIS FATE.

Philadelphia, March 9.—The death warrant which Governor Hastings signed for the execution of H. H. Holmes on May 7 was received by Sheriff Clement to-day from Harrisburg. The sheriff accompanied by his solicitors, A. S. L. Shields and Attorney-General Crew and Lawyer S. P. Rotan, of counsel for Holmes, went to the county prison, where the warrant was formally read to the condemned man by Sheriff Clement. The latter declined to allow reporters to accompany the party. The sheriff announced that the number of witnesses at the execution would not be in excess of that at less important hangings.
