prices most likely to follow in immediate future.

Corn has been firm, unexpectedly so, considering the liquidation of holders in the past few days. The low prices were carly, with a rally of ½c later, which held pretty well. The buying was generally by private wire houses. There was no selling pressure. The cash people were more friendly, Philadelphia reporting a better demand and some business doing from here with New England in yellow. Receipts, 425 cars, with 175 for to-morrow. Contract stock decreased 215,000 bushels. Public and private stocks increased 126,000 bushels, not withstanding last week's shipments.

Oats are off ½c from the opening for May. There was selling by Canby and Rankin. The Patten holding of oats is the largest in the market, and the price is sensitive to operations that seem like this. Receipts, 230 cars, with 135 to-morrow.

Previsions opened weak, with hogs, which were 10c to 15c lower. The market at once was given support by bull interest, especially in lard. Local traders and commission houses were the best buyers. Liverpool was lower; pork some lower, with lard slightly higher, and ribs steady. Hogs to-morrow, 30,000.
