STRIKE AT WINDSOR.

Windsor, May 19.—The carpenters and mechanics employed at the planing mills of A. N. McLean and John Piggott & Sons went on strike this morning. The men demanded a 10 per cent. increase in pay and recognition of their union. This was refused. W. J. McKee, who has a mill in West London-street, has signed the agreement granting the increase, and to-day his men are at work. There are 24 men now idle, and at least 50 will be out before the end of the week unless their demands are agreed to.

Public Amusements

Third Week of Mantell.

The third week of Robert Mantell's spring engagement at the Grand opened last night with the revival of Alexandre Dumas' famous tragedy, "The Corsican Brothers." Mantell has, in years gone by, created a name for himself in the dual roles of Louis and Fabian Da Franchi, and it is needless to say that, in presenting these characters to the patrons of the Grand, he wins just applause. This famous drama is so familiar to all playgoers that a synopsis of the plot is unnecessary. The character of M. Alfred Meynard, in the hands of Mr. W. J. Bowen, was ably produced, as was, also, that of Emilie de Lesparre, by Miss Marie Russell. The three other principal characters of the play—Mr. Mark Price, as M. De Chateau de Renaud; Mr. Robert Stowe as Baron Montgiron, and Miss Minnie Monk as Madame Franchi— were also worthy of note. The staging, scenery, support and mechanical effects were in keeping with the production. "The Corsican Brothers" will hold the boards at the Grand thruout the week, with the usual matinees.

Golden, the Wonderful.

Manager Shea is doing better every week, and in the bill of attractions now on the boards at his popular house appears to have arrived at pretty near the limit. The chief feature is the great Golden, the illusionist, and in many respects he is the equal of Kellar, whose feats are fresh in the minds of many. Some of his illusions border on the supernatural, his audience is completely puzzled, and altogether the entertainment he gives is marvelous and pleasing. The program opens with Arthur Ballerini's dogs, four exceedingly knowing little brutes. For sagacity they are superior to any dumb animal aggregation that has appeared here. Frobie and Rugie give a clever turn, including some mid-air acrobatic work, and keep the audience in a high state of glee. A farce entitled, "Wanted a Stenographer," is put on by four clever people, who introduce some pleasing musical numbers. Bertie Fowler does a talk of ten minutes, imitating some eccentric characters. One of the best monologists on the vaudeville stage is Loney Haskel. He keeps the audience laughing every minute, and as an antidote to the blues he is a complete success. Clara Ballerini is a clever and nervy trapeze performer. Her swinging and balancing on her precarious perch is nothing short of marvelous. The show concludes with a series of kinetograph pictures representing the life and death of Joan of Arc. The bill will doubtless draw as no other vaudeville attraction has this season.

"On the Suwanee River."

"On the Suwanee River" was given at the Toronto Opera House yesterday before two fair-sized audiences. The play is creditably presented by able people, and is neatly staged. Miss Stella Mayhew as Aunt Lindy won a great deal of applause. During the play interesting specialties are given by the Clover Leaf Quartet and Miss Mayhew. The play will run all week, with matinees every day, excepting to-morrow.

WRITES OF THE FIGHT.

Trooper Soady of the C.M.R. on the Hart's River Battle.

Trooper Charles Soady of the C.M.R., writing from Klerksdorp, gives an interesting account of the last fight in which the Canadians made such a gallant stand. He says: "We were with Col. Cookson's column and had the hardest corner of the fight. The Boers tried to rush us, but they got a hot reception. In the fight our column lost one officer and 13 men killed and eight officers and 78 men wounded. One of the Boers, who was brought in, said that it was the heaviest loss that they had had for a long time, losing over 300 killed. We have been kept on the move ever since we struck the country and have covered a lot of ground. We arrived here yesterday after seven days' march, during that time being out of the saddle only a few hours."

Speaking of the aftermath of the battle, he says: "On one of the marches we came to an old mine, and, searching it, found three Boer spies hiding. One of them had on a suit of our own clothes, which I believe he stole from one of our men who was killed the week before, as they strip the dead and wounded every chance they get." In conclusion he writes: "We have just been served with a half a loaf of bread to a man, the first bread we have had for a month."

WILL ISSUE A WRIT.

William Christie to Claim $5000 Damage for Alleged Conspiracy.

William Christie, who was acquitted in the Police Court yesterday of a charge of attempting to induce William Lloyd to perjure himself to secure a vote has instructed his solicitor, John Mulvey, to issue a writ claiming $5000 damages for alleged conspiracy, false arrest and malicious prosecution. The defendants, it is stated, are William Lloyd, the complainant, and Barristers John Greer and James Baird. The papers have been drawn up and will be filed at Osgoode Hall to-day.

Yesterday Crown Attorney Curry stated that one Burns identified James Christie and not William Christie as the man who brought him and Lloyd to register. Mr. Curry is considering if he can have a case made out against James Christie without Lloyd's evidence. If a case cannot be made out without Lloyd's evidence, and he may, he is considering if it would be advisable to lay an information. The Crown is looking for Lloyd.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

George Eadie Smothered in an Excavation By the Sand Caving in on Him.

DUE TO INSUFFICIENT SHORING

Jury Says "Accidental Death," But Warns the Town to Supervise Such Work.

Toronto Junction, May 19.—Whilst making a connection with the sewer on Humberside-avenue and the drain from the new houses being built by Mr. Lennon at the corner of Dundas-street, George Eadie, an employe of the town, was this afternoon suffocated by a quantity of sand caving in and covering him to a depth of six feet.

Mr. Millet had dug out the drain and shored up a part of it near the sewer. He had dug down a distance of 17 feet, and came out to get a hammer. Everything being ready to make the connection, Mr. Eadie went into the drain. Millet offered to make the connection, but Eadie insisted upon going in. Whilst Millet was handing him the hammer, the sand on the south of the drain caved in, knocked him backwards and covered him up. Dr. Mavety was immediately sent for, and willing hands set to work to dig the unfortunate man out. They were about half an hour before they unearthed him, life being extinct.

Dr. Clendenan ordered an inquest, which was held at Cummings' undertaking rooms this evening. After examining the scene of the accident and listening to the evidence of Mr. Holmes, Mr. McCartney, F. Dundas, Chief Robinson and Mr. Purtle, a verdict of accidental death was brought in, the jury expressing the opinion that the accident would not have happened had the drain been efficiently shored up. A rider was added, recommending the town to supervise future excavations and provide the necessary shoring.

McGregor Young watched the case for the Crown.

Clause 3 was amended, so that 16-candle-power incandescent lights will be used for lighting purposes. The price is to be $5 per year per light for window lights and $3.50 per light for interior lights. The town offices will be supplied with lighting at cost. The company is to commence work within 60 days and have the plant in operation by October. The Council meets again to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.
