This may be a ruse purposely advanced by the Spanish. The note of warning has been sounded to the commanding officers of all the ships comprising the North Atlantic fleet. ARMS AND AMMUNITION FOR THE INSURGENTS. New York, April 26.-A dispatch from Washington says: Arrangements have been completed by this government to supply the Cuban insurgents with arms and ammunition. The government is preparing now to land in Cuba from 25,000 to 30,000 stands of improved Springfield rifles, a number of artillery batteries, rapid-fire Maxim guns and an abundance of ammunition. When the proper time arrives for the 35,000 armed Cubans to co-operate with the American forces, they will be thoroughly armed and equipped for battle. When Etrada Palma and Brigadier-Gen. Castillo visited the war department last week, the plans for delivering the arms were adopted. Gen. Miles believes that if the insurgents are properly armed and supplied with the artillery they have so long needed they can do most effective work and render the American troops invaluable aid in driving the Spaniards rom the island.

when three or four Spanish soldiers, with fixed bayonets, arrested him as an American spy. The British vice-consul, Mr. Arthur Arcoste Guy, was interested in the case, and Capt. Milburn was released. The Myrtleden lert Havana Friday night, just as the American fleet was coming in sight. Mr. Guy, the British vice-consul, anxious for his family's safety, sent them to Key West by the steamer. Capt. Milburn intended to ship 5,000 tons of sugar, now in Cuba, but he was advised to leave port promptly. According to statements of Mr. Arthur Guy, the British vice-consul at Hayana, great excitement prevails in Havana, and at the time the Myrtleden left port, the people were leaving for the open country in all directions. At Marianao, just outside of Havana, a train was held up by an excited crowd, eager to escape. The alarm was caused by the firing from the Santa Clara battery.

His coming speech in the cortes will, it is said, dispel the idea that he is heading a revolution. On the contrary, it is asserted, Senor Castelar will, from patriotic motives, not oppose the present democratic monarchy. The Official Gazette publishes the instructions of the Spanish Government respecting the right of search of neutral vessels. In brief, they set forth that warships may detain merchantmen in any non-neutral waters, and for examining the cargo, if the vessel is bound for a hostile port. A new point has been raised relative to the non-delivery of the ultimatum of the United States. The view now taken is that its non-delivery leaves the United States unpledged in regard to the reservations made with reference to Cuban independence. Thus, it is pointed out, while her pride is
