SAYS MAYOR MUST SIGN

fustice Falconridge's Order-Albert Bugsden, Aged 23, Attempts Suicide.

HAMILTON, Aug. 6.—(Special.)— There was quite a bit of interest mani-There was quite a bit of interest manifested in the proceedings at Osgoode Hall this morning and the announcement that Mayor Stewart has been instructed to sign the power bylaw was generally received with surprise. Chief Justice Falconbridge granted the mandamus directed to Mayor Stewart of Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the Hamilton, ordering him to forthwith sign the bylaw passed by the same detectives as have been making that the evidence was gather for power with the Cataract Power Company over which there was such a protracted and bitter fight. Mayor stewart appeared in person and explained to his lordship that the reason he hesitated was because he knew that five of the aldermen who voted for the bylaw had distinctly pledged them-selves to the people at the time of their election to support the proposition of the Hydro-Electric Commission and he considered he was justified in upholdng the interests of the people who lected them by withholding his signature till compelled by legal process. His Lordship, however, pointed out that he could not go into details regarding the matter, but must simply decide upon the facts before him. The mayor could not avoid signing a by-law passed by a majority of the coun-Says He'd Rather Die. M. J. O'Reilly informed Guiseppi Greco this morning that his death sentence had been commuted. Greco

A case of extreme poverty has come to light here. Joseph Simpson, his wife and seven children, the oldest of which is 17, were found to be living in a tumbledown stable on North Porkstreet, near Vine. Simpson has been out of work for months and was ejected from his former house because he could not pay his rent. Subscriptions are being raised to help the distressed family.

Attempted Murder.

In this section the public school children have come to the fore with specimens of pencil, pen and brush in grand force. The handiwork of girls is also much in eyidence; in fact, all round, the applied art and women's and children's work will, this year, present an unusually interesting display.

The prospects are that in every department this year the Canadian National Exhibition will be an improvement on any of the twenty-nine prevents.

Attempted Murder.

The police have received word of a deliberate attempt to muder in a brickyard near Grimsby. An Austrian named Luka Passut lived there in a shanty. On Tuesday night he was awakened by a crowd breaking down the door, shouting, "We will kill him." Passut made his escape by forcing his way thru the roof. The Hamilton police are investigating. Passut claims his assailants were all Hungarians and have objected to his working amongst them.

He also says that he had a sunstroke.

Toronto Man Robbed.
While boarding a train at the Grand Trunk Station, Robert Guthrie, Toronto, was robbed of $800. Guthrie did not miss his money until he reached Aylmer last night and he immediately telephoned the local police.

Albert Lugsin, 23 years of age, employed at Hammond's livery stable, was found unconscious this evening in a buggy in the stable. Beside him was a note stating that because his girl had gone back on him, he had taken twenty grains of morphine. He was hustled to the city hospital where a stomach pump was used on him. The
