Arrangements are almost completed for the International Tennis Tournament which is always the most important event of the season at the Queen's Royal, and will be held this year on the week of August 23rd. The Wrights, the Dohertys and Miss May Sutton will attend, and an opportunity will be afforded of seeing Mrs. Hannam, who gave Miss Sutton the closest match of her career, when they met at Newport in a return game with the world's champion. Mrs. Hannam has recently settled in Toronto, and is proving a great acquisition to local tennis circles.
