rious time of the world's blessing, calls it "times of refreshing and times of restitution." He tells us that all the holy prophets described the blessings of those restitution times—the thou-sand years, the millennium (Acts lif, 19-21). When once we get the eyes of our understanding opened, we find the apostle's words thoroly corroborated by the divine records, which describe the wonderful blessings that are to come when the earth shall yield her increase. The paradise lost shall be paradise regained. Then God will make his carthly footstool glorious. Then the bessing of the Lord shall make rion and he will add no sorrow therewith. Then streams shall break forth in the desert and the wilderness and solitary TAMPA. Fla., Feb. 20.—Pastor C. He said: me apply the first text only and k of the divine program as being rely an endeavor to rescue mankind n sin and death to righteousness merely an endeavor to rescue mankind from sin and death to righteousness and eternal life in the present time. Such as hold this view are much con-insel, because it must be acknowl-edged that comparatively little has been done, or is now being done, for man's uplift. After six thousand years it is still true that "The whole world light in the Wicked One," "Darkness covers the earth and gross darkness the heathen." In order to have any confidence at all in this theory those who hold it are obliged to sreatly low-er their standards. They are forced to hope that God will admit millions of unfit people, crude, rude, ignorant and wicked to eternal life and happiness, for perchance provide for them purga-torial experiences, to make them fit, righteous and acceptable for life eter-nal. As a whole, Christian people are their bewilderment is toward doubt, skepticism, atheism. and churchianity. He promises that Satan shall be bound for that thousand years, that he may deceive the nations no more. He promises that then all the "blinded eyes shall be opened and all the deaf ears shall be unstopped" (Isaiah xxxv, 5; II Corinthians iv, 4).

Both of these salvations, according to the Bible, result from the death of Jesus our Redeemer, who died in obe-dience to the Divine will, "Died, the Just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God" (I. Peter iii., 18.) The Scriptures clearly show not only the two salvations, but also two parts of the Redeemer's work, distinctly sepathe Redeemer's work, distinctly sepa-rating His work for the church from His work for the world. In His death there was a Divine general provision for the sins of the whole world and a God never intended the salvation of the world, but merely the salvation of the church, elect according to the forespecial provision for the sins of the church. The two thoughts are fre-quently brought out in the Scriptures. the world, but have according to the fore-the church, elect according to the fore-knowledge of God thru sanctification of the spirit and belief in the truth. Those who hold this theory have great confusion also, because it seems in-comprehensible that God would make no provision for "thousands of mil-lions" of Adam's race, but arrange for them to be born in sin, shapen in in-iguity, and to go down to the tomb (or worse) without a clear knowledge of and his purposes and will re-

One text distinctly declares, "He is the propitiation (satisfaction) for our sins (the church's sins), and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." His death constituted the sat-isfaction price. The Redeemer ap-plied that merit for the church's sins, "for us," long ago, eighteen centuries before we were born.
