

THE YOUNG LADIES' AUXILIARY.

The Secretary of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary has great pleasure in presenting her report for the year 1892. It has been a most successful year, and with the help of a number of the young lady members of St. James' congregation, presents for four Christmas trees were sent to the Rev. J. Boydell, of Bracebridge, which in receipt of a letter from him were most acceptable, also two Christmas trees with presents and boxes of candies for each child were given to the afternoon Sunday-school of St. James'. The Treasurer's report was most satisfactory.

AMY G. BEATTY, Secretary.

SEWING SCHOOL REPORT.

The Sewing School has carried on its work as usual, having opened the last Saturday in October. The attendance has been most regular, and numbers from seventy to eighty-four (usually seventy-seven or seventy-eight). There was a short holiday in January owing to nearly all the teachers being laid up with influenza.

The subscriptions received up to date are as follows :—

Mrs. Wyld, $3 ; Mrs. Winn, $2 ; Mrs. S. Heward, $5 ; Mrs. Todd, $2 ; Mrs. Brock, $2 ; Mrs. Kerr, $4 ; Mrs. F. Grasett, $2 ; Mrs. Green, $3 ; Mrs. Grasett, $1 ; Mrs. A. Grasett, $1 ; Miss DuMoulin, $1 ; grant from Dorcas Society, $20. The children pay half price.

At the close of last season, after paying for everything, a few cents only were due to the Secretary-Treasurer. The order is very good, and a great deal of the work shown at the final examination last year was very creditable. A number of the ladies of the congregation gave very nice prizes both for good needlework and regular attendance. Twenty-two children have never missed or been late, and a large number only missed once. The teachers this year have been :—

MRS. WINN.	MISS HOSKIN.
“ MERRICK.	“ RICHARDS.
MISS BEATTIE.	“ MARY DUMOULIN.
“ MUNRO.	“ SIDLEY.
“ MAUD YARKER.	“ PRIMROSE.
MISS WHATMOUGH.

The cutting out and preparing was entirely done by Miss Campbell, Queen's Park, and Miss E. Green, College street.

April 1st.

L. M. GREEN.
Secretary-Treasurer.
