'OAKWOOD'

There are some few special lots left in "Oakwood." You have heard of "Oakwood"? It is the new residential district located on the hill overlooking the city and bounded on the north by St. Clair Avenue, east by Ossington Avenue. An ideal spot for a city home and therefore a good investment for any one—homebuilder or investor.

The splendid new high school is to be erected on a northern section of the property. The tenders for the work were closed Monday last. Fall will see the building completed.

Every lot sold yet, with restrictions to insure a good house, has gone to the homebuilder who, while looking towards the future, desires a healthy and wholesome environment for the younger members of his family.

If you are taking a walk Sunday make "Oakwood" the turning point. You will have a pleasant outing and will be able to study Toronto in a panoramic view with the lake as a background.

Phone us for terms and prices. They are both tempting.

Where He Felt It.

A story is told concerning Prince Edward of Wales (now Prince of Wales), who recently was asked by a companion at Dartmouth College what he felt like being the eldest son of the Prince of Wales and future King.

"Don't you feel it is a great responsibility being the eldest son?" asked the friend, who was of a serious turn of mind.

"Well, I don't know about that," said the prince. "I've never thought of it that way—it's always seemed to me great luck to be born the eldest because when you're eldest you haven't got to wear any of your brother's old clothes!"

EMPLOYEES APPRECIATE EATON HALF-HOLIDAY

J. C. Eaton Presented With Magnificent Memento and Illuminated Address.

Shortly before the gong sounded at 1 p.m. in the T. Eaton store on Saturday, announcing that the first half-holiday in May was in effect, a pleasing event took place in the president's private office on the first floor. There J. C. Eaton was made the recipient of a handsome presentation from the thousands of employees benefited by the holiday. The presentation took the form of a large autograph book, richly bound in crimson morocco leather, and contained the signature of every employee of the Toronto store to whom the holiday will apply. Accompanying the autograph album was an illuminated address, the border decorations showing the different outdoor pleasures that an afternoon holiday affords. The presentation was made on behalf of the employees by Richard Phibbs.

In replying to the presentation Mr. Eaton expressed the wish that each Saturday might be as beautiful as the opening day of the holiday season of 1910. Following is the text of the presentation:

Mr. John C. Eaton, President, The T. Eaton Company, Limited.

Another chapter has been written in the illustrious annals of our great institution over which you preside, and now the glorious springtime month of May is added to the vacation period during which we all enjoy our weekly half-holiday.

The formation of our athletic association, which you have so bountifully assisted by procuring for us our magnificent new playground, together with our Saturday vacations, will do much for our physical welfare, and at the same time will give you, as an enthusiastic, all-conquering army, vigorous alike in body and in mind, able to better perform our daily duties.

It is evident that, inspired by the illustrious example of your revered father, your purpose is the world of commerce; we are glad indeed that it is our lot to be associated with the house that has been the pioneer, and continues to be the pre-eminent leader, in every movement having for its object the shortening of the hours of labor and the improvement in every way of the conditions surrounding the staff.

Upon this first day on which we benefit by your most recent generous action the entire force of your associate workers in the Toronto store unites in formally expressing the gratitude felt by each of us to you. We esteem it an honor to be permitted to subscribe ourselves as members of your grateful, loyal staff.

Toronto, May 7, 1910.

BARGAINS IN DIAMONDS

R. A. Gledhill Secures Stock of Fine Gems at Cut Prices.

Toronto, beginning this week, have an unrivalled opportunity to acquire diamond gems and brilliant of the highest quality and finest water. R. A. Gledhill of 21 Yonge-street Arcade has never turned his stock as a connoisseur to better advantage than in a purchase recently concluded by which he has obtained for cash from a big firm of Amsterdam cutters, who needed the money, a large stock of stones at a discount of 25 per cent. below regular dealer's prices. They run in size from 1-4-carat to five carats, and will be offered either mounted or unset. As it is Mr. Gledhill's intention to let the Toronto public have the largest possible share in this notable bargain, his sale prices will be reasonably moderate and every facility will be afforded for inspection.

Mr. Gledhill carries also a large and varied selection of jewelry, particularly in pearls, another of his specialties. With the wedding season now approaching, every requisite for that eventful ceremony can be obtained at his store, engagements and marriage rings, groomsmen's and bridesmaids' gifts and general presents—even the license, as he is an issuer of this necessary document. Another advantage Mr. Gledhill possesses over other stores is the perfection of his working and repairing methods. Goods left or ordered in the morning are delivered on the same day—a boon to visitors. His patrons can have the benefit of his 20 years' experience, and he has just returned from a two weeks' stay in New York, where he was in search of the newest and latest ideas in rings and jewelry.

Realty and Building

In connection with the purchases of real estate in the block bounded by Yonge, Buchanan, Teraulay and College-streets, it is reported that the A. E. Rea Co. are behind the buying agents. A big departmental store occupying the whole block is said to be in view. The Rea company have a wholesale manufacturing establishment on Spadina-avenue, and recently took over the department store owned by the Lindsay Co., Ottawa, and that of the S. Carley Co. in Montreal. They would like a big store in Toronto.

DROPS DEAD IN STREET

Charles Campbell of West Toronto Victim of Epilepsy.

Charles Campbell of 181 Hallam-street, Dovercourt-road, a saddling contractor, member of the firm of Kelsey, Campbell & Co., this city, and a resident of the northwestern section of Toronto for over 25 years, died very suddenly at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, at the corner of Annette and Runnymede-streets, West Toronto.

Campbell had for several years been subject to epilepsy. Saturday morning his wife advised him to rest at home as he looked unwell. His last words to her were: "My only rest possible
