

From the fact that there is a constant change among the prisoners, who are for the most part committed for short periods, it is not to be expected that we can see all the results of the work done, and it is absolutely necessary to depend upon the faithfulness of Him who has promised that His "word shall not return unto Him void." We claim for this work the practical help, and the prayerful sympathy, of all those who emulate the example of Him who came to seek and save that which was lost.
